

Summer 2013

New Releases for July:

The Lemon Orchard by Luanne Rice

While housesitting in Malibu, Julia—who is still grieving the deaths of her husband and daughter five years ago—meets the overseer of a local lemon orchard who is coping with the loss of his own daughter. July 2

The Last Word by Lisa Lutz

In this latest mystery featuring the wacky Spellmans—a family of private investigators in San Francisco—Izzy Spellman is accused of embezzlement. July 9

The Light in the Ruins by Chris Bohjalian

A serial killer in 1955 Florence is targeting the Rosati family. Interspersed with the investigation are flashbacks to the family's forced dealings with the Nazis and Fascists decades earlier. July 9

First Sight by Danielle Steele

A world famous fashion designer whose past is filled with heartache falls for a French doctor trapped in a loveless marriage. July 16

New Releases for August:

Mistress by James Patterson and David Ellis

Ben—a man given to obsessions and paranoia—can't let go when the secret object of his affection is found dead. And the deeper he digs into Diana's scandalous life, the more dangerous his fixation becomes. August 5

Under a Texas Sky by Dorothy Garlock

While on location in Texas, a Depression-era aspiring film star falls for a local who resents the invasion of Big City out-of-towners. But when someone begins sabotaging production, can their new love survive? August 6

Let Me Go by Chelsea Cain

With Gretchen on the loose once again, the cat-and-mouse game between Detective Archie Sheridan and serial killer Gretchen Lowell ratchets up in new and unpredictable ways. Book six of the series. August 13

Rose Harbor in Bloom by Debbie Macomber

In this second installment of the series, Jo Marie Rose offers refuge at her inn to guests in need of healing even as she struggles with her own grief. August 13

Dates are publishers' release dates; there may be a delay before items are available for library check out.*

Watch for these hot new releases perfect for your summer reading pleasure!

BULLITT COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY PATHFINDERS

Books, Movies, and More on Your Favorite Subjects

Enrich your summer with these Classic Reads :

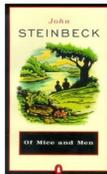

The Moonflower Vine by Jetta Carleton

Four sisters in early twentieth century Missouri experience love, betrayal, heartache, and forgiveness across several decades in this rediscovered classic. FIC CARL/CD BOOK CARL

An American Tragedy by Theodore Dreiser

Based on a notorious 1906 criminal case, this novel follows an impoverished son of street preachers whose naïve yet ruthless pursuit of social betterment leads to terrible tragedy. FIC DREI/E-book

Of Mice and Men by John Steinbeck

Set during the Great Depression, this is the moving and ultimately tragic tale of friendship between a quick-witted itinerant farm worker and his physically strong but developmentally disabled companion. FIC STEI/CD BOOK STEI/E-book/E-audiobook

The Waves by Virginia Woolf

This experimental novel uses stream of consciousness to relate the interior monologues of six friends as they grow to maturity. Lush descriptions of the coastal setting give this a beach-worthy feel for readers with a literary bent. FIC WOOL

Kidnapped by Robert Louis Stevenson

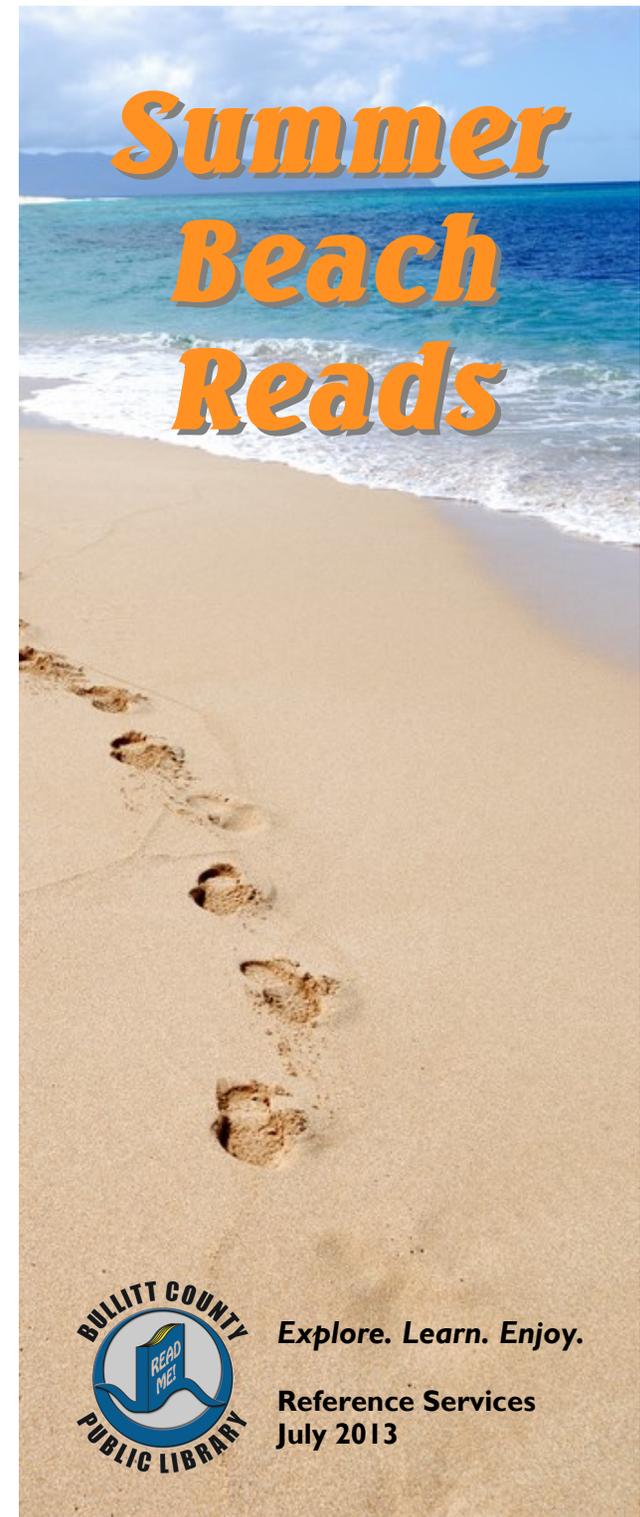

Betrayed by his villainous uncle, a teenaged orphan encounters adventures on the high seas and in the Scottish Highlands, where he becomes involved in the Scottish struggle against English rule. J STEV/E-audiobook

Leaves of Grass and Selected Prose by Walt Whitman

Whitman's celebrated poetry collection is filled with imagery of ocean waves and beaches. 811.3 WHIT/Leaves of Grass: E-book/E-audiobook

If you have suggestions for future pathfinders, let us know! E-mail us at reference@bcplib.org.

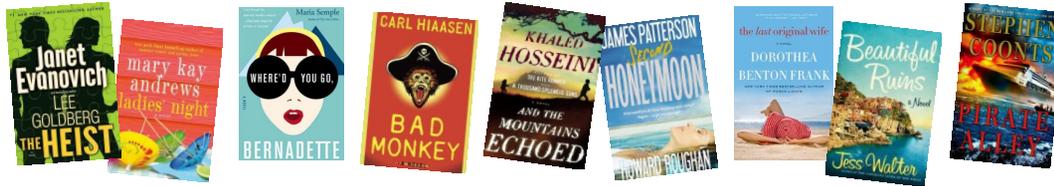

Explore. Learn. Enjoy.

Reference Services
July 2013

Beach Book Bonanza: Knock Yourself Out with These Great Summer Reads!

Adult Fiction:

Ladies' Night by Mary Kay Andrews

Assigned to court-ordered therapy after a rage-induced, post-divorce meltdown, Grace Stanton bonds with her fellow patients and enters a rocky new romance. Set in Florida's Gulf Coast. LT ANDR/E-audiobook

Pirate Alley by Stephen Coonts

When a cruise ship is seized by Somali pirates, a team of CIA and Navy SEAL operatives mount an undercover operation to save the hostages and derail a dangerous conspiracy. FIC COON/LT COON

Sweet Salt Air by Barbara Delinsky

Two childhood friends reunite at a summer island retreat off the coast of Maine, and the revelation of past secrets bring both heartache and hope. FIC DELI/LT DELI

The Heist by Janet Evanovich and Lee Goldberg

In this first installment of a lighthearted new series, an FBI agent reluctantly teams up with her conman nemesis—and a cast of other unlikely characters—in order to catch a high-profile embezzler. FIC EVAN/LT EVAN/E-book

The Last Original Wife by Dorothea Benton Frank

Tired of life with a husband who believes he's doing her a favor by not trading her in for a newer, younger model, an Atlanta socialite retreats to the beaches of South Carolina in search of a better, more fulfilling life. FIC FRAN/E-audiobook

The White Pearl by Kate Furnivall

Drama, adventure, and romance weave together in this World War II-era novel that takes its characters from a Malayan plantation to the islands of Singapore. Set in the midst of the Japanese invasion. FIC FURN

Bad Monkey by Carl Hiaasen

Hurricanes, frozen body parts, and a voodoo witch all make an appearance in Hiaasen's latest zany crime novel, which takes its police detective protagonist from South Florida to the Bahamas and back again. FIC HIAA/LT HIAA/E-book/E-audiobook

And the Mountains Echoed by Khaled Hosseini

This affecting family saga from the bestselling author of The Kite Runner spans six decades and travels to Afghanistan, Paris, California, and a Greek Island. LT HOSS

The Bungalow by Sarah Jio

A letter discovered by her granddaughter prompts a woman to reflect on her wartime romance with a soldier in the South Seas and a murder mystery from her past. FIC JIO/LT JIO

Aloha, Lady Blue by Charles Memminger

An ex-crime reporter who lives in a houseboat in the Hawaiian islands uncovers a dangerous secret while performing a favor for a former classmate. MYS MEMM

Second Honeymoon by James Patterson and Howard Roughan

In this follow up to Honeymoon, FBI agent John O'Hara and Special Agent Sarah Brubaker are on the trail of a serial killer targeting newlyweds. MYS PATT/E-audiobook

Where'd You Go, Bernadette by Maria Semple

When her agoraphobic, brilliant, erratic mother goes missing, eight-grader Bee Fox plunges into a madcap journey to track her mother down. FIC SEMP/LT SEMP

Beautiful Ruins by Jess Walter

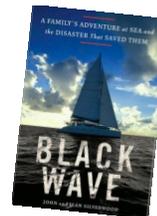

A young Italian innkeeper in an obscure seaside village is drawn into a fascinating and glamorous world when he meets a lovely American starlet. FIC WALT/LT WALT/E-book

Adult Nonfiction:

Black Wave

by John and Jean Silverwood

When the Silverwood family decided to embark on a 2-year journey around the world in their 55-foot catamaran, they did not anticipate the adventure that awaited them, from marital difficulties and other everyday challenges to life-threatening catastrophes. 910.9164 SILV/E-audiobook

Hot Summer Reads for Kids & Teens

SARAH DESSEN

The Moon and More by Sarah Dessen
During her last summer before entering college, family developments and romantic quandaries cause Emaline to reassess her plans for the future. Ages 12 and up. J DESS

Second Chance Summer by Morgan Matson

When her family spends one last summer together at their lake house, Taylor must face the friends she hurt in the past and come to terms with her father's impending death. Ages 13 and up. J MATS

The Disenchantments by Nina LaCour

The summer after high school graduation, Colby plays roadie for a punk-rock girl band and must deal with sudden changes to his plans and complex feelings for the band's lead singer. Ages 14 and up. J LACO

Summer of the Gypsy Moths by Sara Pennypacker

When her great-aunt Louise dies, an 11-year-old abandoned by her mother and an orphaned foster child decide to keep the death a secret and try to run Louise's Cape Cod vacation resort on their own. Ages 9 and up. J PENN

The Summer Prince by Alaya Dawn Johnson

In a distant-future Brazil, June falls in love with fellow artist Enki even knowing that like all summer kings he will be dead by the end of the season. Ages 14 and up. J JOHN

All I Need by Susane Colasanti

An unlikely couple fall for one another during summer break on the Jersey Shore, but can their feelings endure when they return to their real lives? Ages 13 and up. J COLA

Ten by Gretchen McNeil

Ten teens attending a house party on a remote island learn they are the targets of a serial killer. This horror/mystery loosely parallels the Christie classic And Then There Were None. Ages 14 and up. J MCNE

Island of Thieves by Josh Lacey

Tom and his slightly shady uncle travel to Peru in search of buried treasure and find more danger and adventure than they bargained for! Ages 9 and up. J LACE

