Did you know? . . .

- The first written record of the word abracadabra was in A.D. 208. A doctor used it in a poem as a cure for fever.
- Possibly the earliest drawing of a magic wand is an Egyptian hieroglyph of a priest holding a small rod over a bull's head.
- The legendary wizard Merlin is believed to be based on Myrddhin, a traveling troubadour who became the court bard to King Arthur. The rhyming prophecies in his poems may have earned him his reputation as a wizard.
