Celebrate the Holidays with BCPL

This December, Bullitt County Public Library is delighted to present a variety of free programs we hope will entertain, elevate the holiday spirit, and, of course, excite the kiddos. Here's a preview of the seasonal events we have planned:

- Drop in for A Visit with St. Nicholas and get photos with Santa himself!
- Enjoy a holiday classic on the big screen at our Family Movie Nights, or attend our All Aboard event for an extra-magical viewing of The Polar Express.

- Stop by to experience a crafting extravaganza at our Holiday Crafting Afternoons, or sign up for Holiday Origami or any of four Graham Cracker House Workshop opportunities.

- Bring the kids to get an early start to their New Year's celebration at our Noon Year's Eve Party.

- For some holiday-free winter fun, bring the kids by to enjoy our Winter Crafty Corner or sign them up for some Fleece Fun.

See the events pages of this newsletter for more details on all our upcoming events, or ask at any Library service desk.

Holiday Crafting Afternoons

Join us at your favorite BCPL location for a delightful afternoon of holiday spirit and crafting! See pages 4 to 6 for featured crafts at each location.

BCPL in the Community

Outreach services provide programs & more beyond our buildings

In addition to presenting free, quality in-house programs tailored to a variety of interests, the Bullitt County Public Library Outreach & Programs Department is dedicated to BCPL's mission of providing library access to all Bullitt County residents. For this purpose, we offer Outreach services designed to bring the library to anyone who might otherwise be unable to use—or be unaware of—the library services and materials we offer.

library building to offer greater access to materials and services, we are able to build a stronger community and improve the quality of life for many individuals and families. For example, with our homebound delivery program, BCPL Outreach staff personally deliver books, audiobooks, movies, and other items to patrons who cannot visit the library due to physical or mental disability, prolonged illness, or an inability to travel safely. These visits often provide an important touchpoint for patrons who are

From the Director

Library Director Joe Schweiss lays out a holiday feast.

December is a time for celebrations, parties, and sharing. The same month also contains National Pie Day, National Brownie Day, and National Hamburger Day, so there is a real emphasis on delicious food. From cookie exchanges and potluck meals to holiday parties with families and friends, this is a great month for tasty dishes of all sorts. Bullitt County Public Library has plenty of resources to make your next meal one to remember, whether you can barely boil water or if you can make profiterole in your sleep.

For those with the time to stop into one of our library branches, our nonfiction section has a huge selection of titles that will help out for the holidays. Books like Martha Stewart's Cooking School and How to Break an Egg focus on some of the basic cooking techniques, while How to Cook Everything Fast and The Half-Hour Hostess offer tips on getting out of the kitchen faster than normal. And, if you believe that meals are always better with dessert, cookbooks like Better Homes & Gardens Very Merry Cookies and Kentucky Sweets: Bourbon Balls, Spoonbread and Mile High Pie can help you make that perfect sweet treat. On top of our traditional cookbooks, we also offer cookbooks that run the range from vegan to gluten-free.

Perhaps you would prefer to look at a magazine instead of a large cookbook, and maybe it would be even better if you could get a copy without leaving your house. If that's the case, take a look at what we offer via Flipster, our new online magazine resource. We have a great run of magazine titles that can aid in your holiday cooking needs, and some also have great decorating and gift ideas as well. Check out the current issues of Bon Appetit, Food & Wine, Cooking Light, Southern Living, and Good Housekeeping for a plethora of festive ideas and recipes.

Finally, if you want anything from a cooking e-book to access to episodes of great cooking shows, stop over at Hoopla anytime, day or night. The available cookbooks run the gamut from The French Laundry Cookbook to Good and Cheap: Eat Well on $4/Day. There are also titles that focus on using slow cookers and others that use pressure cookers, so whether you start dinner cooking in the morning or later in the day you will find a helpful resource.

“...this is a great month for tasty dishes of all sorts.”

In the digital video department, season 16 of my personal favorite cooking show on public television, America's Test Kitchen, offers 26 episodes of rigorously tested recipes and cooking techniques to make the best version of a dish possible, while The Everyday Gourmet: Baking Pastries and Desserts will help you become a better baker while you watch. To make it more convenient, these titles are available for simultaneous checkout, so there is no need to wait for someone else to return a copy before you can get yours.

With all of the titles that we have to offer, you'll be sure to find something to inform, inspire, and instruct you to make something magical in the kitchen. So, if you are tasked with cooking anything this season, your library has the resources to help you make a dish that is merry and delightful!

Library News

Mt. Washington Construction Update

We're starting to get really excited about our Mt. Washington construction project! Concrete for the sidewalks was poured on November 21st and 22nd. Windows are in, most of the masonry and brickwork is completed, and partitioning and framing of the interior is underway.

Important Dates

Tuesday, December 13th

Board of Trustees Meeting

Our monthly board meeting will be held at Ridgway Memorial Library in Shepherdsville at 5:00 PM. Meetings are open to the public.

Saturday, December 24th–
Monday, December 26th

CLOSED for the Christmas holiday
All BCPL locations will be closed on December 24th, 25th, and 26th. The Library will reopen Tuesday morning at 9:00 AM.

Saturday, December 31st
& Sunday, January 1st

CLOSED for New Year's
All BCPL locations will be closed ON New Year's Eve and New Year's Day. However, you can still access all of our online services while we're closed, including e-books, research databases, and streaming movies.

DID YOU KNOW...?

You can reserve a meeting room for private events and parties at Ridgway Memorial Library, Hillview Branch Library, and Lebanon Junction Branch Library. Individuals and organizations use our meeting rooms for small conferences, birthday parties and shows, and other special events.

To reserve a meeting room, call or visit the location where you would like to host your event to check availability. The space books up quickly, so be aware that public use is scheduled three months at a time. Beginning on December 1st, we will be scheduling bookings for the months of December, January, and February.

BCPL meeting space is free, but a refundable $50 damage and cleaning deposit is required.

Congratulations to the Winners of Our Library Card Sign-Up Month Giveaway

In honor of National Library Card Sign-Up Month, the Library gave away four Asus ZenPad tablets! Patrons were automatically entered in the drawing just for using their library cards during the month of September. Two pre-existing cardholders and two new cardholders were randomly selected.

Thanks to everyone who participated and everyone who knows that a library card is the smartest card!

Attention Teens: Connect with BCPL!

Join our Teens @ BCPL group on Facebook to get reminders of upcoming teen programs, to view photos of recent teen gatherings at the library, or to stay in touch with BCPL and other library-minded teens in the area.

Teens @ BCPL is a safe place for you to express your ideas and let us know how we can make the library a better place for teens and for YOU! Visit us at facebook.com/groups/bcplteens to get connected today.

We Offer a Variety of Document Services

Like most libraries, BCPL offers copying, printing, and faxing services. But did you know we also do lamination and document scanning?

LAMINATING

Laminators are available at the Circulation Desk at each BCPL location. Desk clerks can laminate items for patrons in two sizes: standard letter or ID card. Costs are $1.00/page for letter-sized documents and 50¢/page for ID card sizes.

SCANNING

The self-serve copy machines at each BCPL location are also enabled to scan to a flash drive or scan to e-mail. Scanning services are free of charge. If you require assistance,

The Xerox copier at each BCPL location also serves as a printer and scanner. You can print items directly from a USB file, or scan a document to a flash drive or to an e-mail.

please inquire at a library service desk.

OTHER SERVICES

Faxes are 50¢/page to send or to receive. Photocopies and computer printouts are 10¢/page for black and white and 50¢/page for color. Double-sided copies count as two pages.

ADULT DAY CENTERS & RETIREMENT HOMES

The BCPL Outreach team also makes regular visits to a number of retirement homes and to four adult day centers. Visits usually include activities like group readings or seasonal crafts as well as the delivery of learning kits, books, DVDs, and music CDs for the use of the centers and their participants.

SCHOOLS & DAYCARES

Members of the Outreach team visit daycares and preschools to help prepare Bullitt County's youngest citizens for school. On average, we present mobile storytimes at nine facilities each month, featuring stories, songs, and rhymes designed to build early literacy skills.

The BCPL Outreach team is also in constant contact with public school representatives. Library staff participate on Family Resource Center and 21st Century School councils, and Outreach staff make frequent visits to schools. During our visits, we offer on-the-spot library card sign-ups for students and school staff, promote literacy to students, and lead programs like computer coding, science experiments, and book talks.

BUSINESSES & COMMUNITY GROUPS

Local businesses, community groups, and interest-based organizations can also schedule visits from BCPL's Outreach team. The Library has visited women's groups, churches, self-help and support organizations, quilting groups, fishing clubs, employers, and recreational outlets to discuss library card accounts, free programs, and reference services.

OTHER OUTREACH

In addition to bringing materials and programs to patrons and organizations by request, we also attend community festivals and events, giving attendees unfamiliar with BCPL an opportunity to discover what we have to offer. Our library newsletter, The Library Bulletin, is also available at over 60 businesses and organizations who have signed up for regular deliveries.

From organizing homebound delivery services to scheduling a newsletter delivery at your business or organization, BCPL strives to find new ways to make the library accessible to everyone in the community. If you would like to request BCPL Outreach services, contact Allison White at awhite@bcplib.org or call 502-543-7675 ext. 5.
