

Extracts of The Bullitt Pioneer

PREFACE

In March 2000, I began a project to extract an index of names published in the turn of the century editions of the Bullitt Pioneer Newspaper. Microfilm of these early newspapers was available at the Ridgeway Memorial Library in Shepherdsville. I first envisioned strictly an index of names only. After working through several editions I realized that the style and content were unique and I started over with the intent of using a line or two from the articles. Later, wanting to include even more of the content I started the project a third time including significant articles. Hundreds or thousands of hours later, I have this finished product.

I have tried to include every piece of information that would be of interest to a genealogist or local historian, using "article", "etc" or "highlights only" for items not typed in its entirety, especially in wedding descriptions or flowery obituaries. Omitted are most state-wide or national political items.

The images on the microfilm range from fair to completely unreadable. Many were faded, torn, wrinkled and stained. I can't help but wonder how many went through our famous Shepherdsville floods. The issues are scattered. Several years had only a few issues available.

The spellings of names often varied with the author. I have no idea as to the correct spelling of many of the names. I typed them as they were printed.

The quality of the images caused many questions. A smudge, wrinkle or hole created gaps. Ink-filled letter led to difficulty with e-a-o-c, u-n, i-l-t, R-B-H. Many looked so much alike. You may want to look closer at names with these letters. Although diligent in the preparation and editing of this project, there may be many instances of error. If you have questions, the microfilm is available at the library.

Dates are entered in order as they appear on the microfilm. Some issues are out of order. I have included date published as well as the original page number with the articles to make it easier to find if you wish to look at the microfilm.

I have enjoyed reading and typing the newspaper into the database. My hope is that someone, somewhere will enjoy the results of my many late night sessions at the computer.

What Shepherdsville Has

No saloons, no dives nor dens of vice, has a people noted for charity, three churches that would do credit for a much larger town, church going people, four ministers, one of the best graded schools in the State, a wide awake school board and an up-to-date faculty of teachers, just finished nice 150 foot bridge leading to the school building, five general stores, several grocery and p??? stores, a beautiful ice cream parlor and lunch room, has a need of some good street crossings, has three soft drink stands, a drug store, two livery stables, large feed and sale stable, tobacco warehouse, three doctors and two undertakers, five insurance agents and five lawyers, a telephone exchange, three printing offices, a Commercial Club and a creamery, in great need of a fire department, has three hotels and three private boarding houses, two blacksmith shops and two barber shops, a grist mill, harness and shoe shop, a lumber yard, five old bachelors under the surveillance of only seventeen old maids, two banks, large shipping interest and lumber market, as good people as live on the face of the earth, many promising young ladies and gentlemen, four rural mail routes, an express, freight and telegraph office, three implemet and carriage companies, has a desperate need of some gas street lights, has a splendid photographer and many Kodak girls, it has nice side walks but disgraceful street crossings, many prosperous citizens but some needy poor who need to be looked after. In short, it is a good town in a good county, inviting good people to locate and share its good advantages.

Capt. J. W. Ridgway

Captain J. W. Ridgway, one of Bullitt County's best known and best loved citizens died at the home of his son, Dr. S. H. Ridgway last Friday evening, after an illness of eight weeks. Death was due to the hardening of the blood vessels and failing of bodily strength, incident to old age. He was almost eighty-four years old and most of his life had been spent in Bullitt County.

Captain Ridgway was a gentleman of the old school. He held in contempt all that was little and questionable. For sixty years, he had been a member of the Masonic Lodge and about that long, a member of the Methodist Church. His daily walk was according to the teachings of those institutions and the commands of God.

His remains were buried in the family cemetery near Cupio the services conducted by the Masonic lodge.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Nick Lewis of West Point and five sons, Ben Ridgway of Cloverport, and Robert, Dr. S. H. and Lindsay Ridgway of this county, and Tom Ridgway of Louisville, and one sister, Mrs. James Augustus of South Park.

Captain Ridgway was one of our best loved and most highly honored citizens. His sterling qualities and cheerful nature endeared him to all, young and old alike.

Article - Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, the last of the Lieutenant Generals of the armies of the confederacy, and the ranking surviving officer of the Civil War, Federal and Confederate, will celebrate his 88th birthday April 1. Served in the Mexican War and on the Western frontier. He has been Governor and a candidate for Vice President, and is today honored "First Citizen of Kentucky". He will celebrate in the room in which he was born, now his library, in the commodious log homestead on Gen. Buckner's estate of "Glen Lily", near Munfordville, in Hart County, KY, which he inherited from his father. His library has a splendid collection of books, which includes one of the finest libraries on the Civil War in the country. He has always been a student, worthy of the title "The Sage of Glen Lily" which Kentuckians have bestowed upon him. There are 800 acres in the estate which was purchased by Col. Aylette Buckner, the Generals father. The Buckner family came to Kentucky from Virginia 112 years ago. Col. Aylette Buckner, in 1820, built the log house in which Simon Bolivar Buckner was born April 1, 1823.

James Franklin Smith

James Franklin Smith, one of Bullitt's oldest and best known men, died at the ripe old age of 78 at the home of his grandson, Nick H. Hall in Louisville, Tuesday, May 30, 1911 after a lingering illness of many months, of great pain and suffering, which he bore with Christian patience. "Uncle Jim" as he was known, was sent to the home of Mr. Hall on Sunday, and during his short stay with them, his life was made so happy by his cheerful grandson and wife, who watched the dark shadows of the death angel hover over the dear old man and carry him from earth to Heaven. Before departing this life, he took the kind and loving hand of Mrs. Hall and said, "Child, I am not afraid to go, or to leave this old world, no! no! but, I do want so bad to stay with you all a little while to enjoy life a little". He was the father of five children, one of whom had been dead about 26 years, Mrs. Mina Hall, mother of the grandson at whose house he spent his last days. The others are Mrs. Mattie Mitchell, Waco, TX, Mrs. Sudie Hall, Louisville, Mrs. Lola Foster, Shepherdsville, and one son, Robert L. Smith of this place. He also leaves 19 grandchildren and ?? great grandchildren. The grandson tenderly removed his remains to Shepherdsville and from there to the family burying ground at the home of W. H. Smith, where he was laid to rest by the side of his wife who departed this life many years ago.

Livingstone-Sanders

Invitation received from Mrs. Sara Henry Hood inviting relatives and friends to the marriage of her daughter, Grace Livingstone to Joseph Anthony Sanders, June 28, 1911 in Knoxville, Tn. Mr. Sanders is a former citizen and native of Bullitt County, a son of Mr. Geo. W. Sanders of Zoneton. He is now located in LaFollette, TN, where he has charge and management of the business interests of one of the largest coal mining companies of that section.

Squire G. Kalfus Johnson

Squire G. Kalfus Johnson, one of the oldest, best known and most highly respected citizens of this county, died at his home about five miles west of Shepherdsville Monday. He has been in declining health for quite a while, and three days before his death, fell and broke his hip, which hastened that event. He was 85 years old and had spent his whole life in his native county. He had served as a Magistrate, admired by all for his honesty and integrity. He was buried in Mt. Eden Cemetery, funeral conducted by Revs. Ramsey and Peak. He leaves three sons, Ben, James and William, 10 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Marshall-Straeffer

The Meadows, the beautiful home of Mrs. T. C. Coleman Sr was on Wednesday night, a scene of loveliness and grace but seldom seen never heretofore surpassed in Bullitt County. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Charlie A. Marshall, Mrs. Coleman's charming and accomplished grand-daughter, to Mr. George Edgar Straeffer, a popular, prominent and successful young business man of Louisville. The stately county mansion etc, etc, etc, etc. Marriage vows spoken solemnly and impressively by Rector David Cordy Wright of St. Paul Episcopal Church in Louisville, of which the bride and her mother are members. The vows were said and the destinies of the two young people, who have loved each other almost since childhood, were united for life. Invitations were confined to relatives almost exclusively, large connections on both sides precluding anything like a general invitation. Also mentions: Madams Dullie Marshall, mother, of the bride, Jennie Johnson, Misses Bertie and Ophelia Coleman, Mr. & Mrs. T. C. Coleman Jr, Mr. & Mrs. du Pont, Mr. & Mrs. ? R. Gause, Bob Moxham, Robert and Coleman Johnson, Wm. Coleman. Out of town guests included: Misses Ellen and Rene du Pont, of Wilmington and Ethel du Pont of Cleveland, Oh and Wm. Weymms of Gallatin TN.

Ora L. Roby announces candidacy for Superintendent of Bullitt County Schools to fill the unexpired term of Miss Jennie Carpenter.

Article - Thank the Lord, the L & N Railroad for its donation of a splendid lot of cut stones, Mr. J. R. Zimmerman for zeal and interest in the matter, and the efforts of The Pioneer in agitating and stirring the subject. Shepherdsville is now getting some of the best street crossings that any town any ways near its size in KY can boast of. L & N contributed a fine lot of cut stone that came out of the old railroad bridge piers at this place when the new double track bridge was erected here about two years ago. Mr. Zimmerman is giving his own time, labor and valuable expertise in seeing that the crossings are properly constructed.

Captain H. S. Poulter

Captain H. S. Poulter, connected with the U.S. Internal Revenue service, died at his home in Bardstown, Tuesday from the infirmities of age and general breakdown. Virginia Barbour

That "death loves a shining mark" was never more truly exemplified than when the final summons came that called from time to eternity Miss Virginia Barbour, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. John R. T. Barbour at her home in Hubers Station Sunday night. She was a lovely girl, just budding into womanhood, having just graduated from the Louisville High School.

The death of Miss Barbour came without warning. On the preceding Monday night, she participated in the commencement exercises of her class and Saturday had a number of her classmates as her guests at her home in the country. She seemed in perfect health, but that night became suddenly ill, soon lapsed into unconsciousness and the efforts of physicians to revive her were in vain. She was suffering from uraemic poisoning and the disease made such rapid progress that she passed away as stated.

The funeral was from the Chapel of St. Mary Magdalene's Church at Brook and College Streets in Louisville and buried in St. Louis Cemetery near that city. Pallbearers were: Kendrick Lewis, Thos. Coleman, Edward C. Humphrey, Cal Drake, Allen R. Whit?? and Abram Brooks. Miss Barbour's death has cast a gloom over this whole community, where she was so well known and universally loved. Since the sad death of Miss Ruth Brooks in Rome several years ago, no like event has caused such general regret in this county.

The new street crossings were put down, at considerable expense, for the benefit of citizens and visitors who have frequently to cross the streets, and not to hitch horses and buggies on. People driving into town would do well to bear this in mind and hitch so that their vehicles will not obstruct the crossings, especially in muddy weather. By doing so, they can save a great deal of "unnecessary cussing" that a Wise Providence may see fit to charge to their account instead of the "cussers".

Jesse T. Griffin

Jesse T. Griffin, a well known farmer of this county, and former candidate for jailer, cut his throat with a razor on the farm of his father-in-law, Harrison Foster, near Hubers Station, Wednesday. When found by Mr. Foster and Mack Jones, he was rapidly bleeding to death. Dr. Ridgway was immediately summoned. At this writing, he is still alive but in a dangerous and precarious condition. For some time past, it has been thought that Mr. Griffin was to some extent mentally unbalanced, but none thought to this extent. He was a clever and popular farmer and during his race two years ago for jailer, made many friends. By his wit and humor, he entertained and amused the crowds at the school houses and neighborhood speakings

Mrs. Hardin Holsclaw

Mrs. W. H. Holsclaw, the venerable widow of the late Hardin Holsclaw, so well known in this county, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Funk, at Brooks Station, last Monday. Her death was the result of infirmities of age, she being about 88 years old. Her husband, Uncle Hardin Holsclaw, as he was generally known died about ten years ago and since his death, she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Funk, who with her children, had ministered tenderly to her wants and made her declining years pleasant and comfortable.

She is survived by three sons, Messrs Lawrence, Clarence, and Burns Holsclaw, prominent farmers and fruit growers of this county and two daughters, Mrs. Dupree, of Louisville, and Mrs. Funk of this county. Also a large number of grand and great grand children.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. Peak, of the Methodist Church, of which she had long been a member, were held at the residence Thursday, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Hebron. Highlights only.

Some fifty of Bullitt County's best citizens sent a petition to Judge Daniel, asking that they be given a chance to improve their school conditions by voting a graded school at Belmont. Judge Daniel appointed Chester Hill and H. J. Massey to conduct an election, action passed 36 to 8. Trustees elected: J. W. Gaban, E. L. Boyd, J. R. Hill, Ike Mudd and Dr. Murray. With this splendid board to direct, and being located in the midst of a very progressive section of our county, and by having the best roads in Bullitt County, we feel sure that these good people have made no mistake and trust that their example may be followed by other sections of our County and State.
