

Extracts of The Bullitt Pioneer

PREFACE

In March 2000, I began a project to extract an index of names published in the turn of the century editions of the Bullitt Pioneer Newspaper. Microfilm of these early newspapers was available at the Ridgeway Memorial Library in Shepherdsville. I first envisioned strictly an index of names only. After working through several editions I realized that the style and content were unique and I started over with the intent of using a line or two from the articles. Later, wanting to include even more of the content I started the project a third time including significant articles. Hundreds or thousands of hours later, I have this finished product.

I have tried to include every piece of information that would be of interest to a genealogist or local historian, using "article", "etc" or "highlights only" for items not typed in its entirety, especially in wedding descriptions or flowery obituaries. Omitted are most state-wide or national political items.

The images on the microfilm range from fair to completely unreadable. Many were faded, torn, wrinkled and stained. I can't help but wonder how many went through our famous Shepherdsville floods. The issues are scattered. Several years had only a few issues available.

The spellings of names often varied with the author. I have no idea as to the correct spelling of many of the names. I typed them as they were printed.

The quality of the images caused many questions. A smudge, wrinkle or hole created gaps. Ink-filled letter led to difficulty with e-a-o-c, u-n, i-l-t, R-B-H. Many looked so much alike. You may want to look closer at names with these letters. Although diligent in the preparation and editing of this project, there may be many instances of error. If you have questions, the microfilm is available at the library.

Dates are entered in order as they appear on the microfilm. Some issues are out of order. I have included date published as well as the original page number with the articles to make it easier to find if you wish to look at the microfilm.

I have enjoyed reading and typing the newspaper into the database. My hope is that someone, somewhere will enjoy the results of my many late night sessions at the computer.

***Educational News

Under auspices of the Bullitt County School Improvement League, J. R. Thompson, Secy.; Chas. Bridwell, Pres. A permanent County School Improvement League was started at our last teachers' meeting. The purpose to effect a closer union of the school interests of this county, looking forward to a betterment of school conditions as existing here and in the State at large. We are on the eve of an educational upheaval in this State, and one of the first aims of this League should be to place Bullitt County among those at the top. When we come to realize that money spent in educating the masses of the people means material prosperity as well as mental and social advance; when it is borne in upon our brain areas that an organized educated body is bound to attract wealth; when we come to know that a dollar expended for popular education will save two dollars spent for the maintenance of "penal institutions" and to the conduct of criminal courts; I say "when we understand that education is a matter of "dollars as well as sense", we will join in one united effort for better schools and universal education. I urge every teacher to organize a district improvement league. Chas. Bridwell, Pres., J. R. Thompson, Secy.

The School Board has recently placed a number of steel seats at Highland School district, the first of this kind ever shipped to our county.

Miss Melissa Engelbrecht, who has been teaching at Sunnyside for the past years, closed her school Friday.

Chairman Wm. Foster, who so ably represents his division, was not present Monday, but whispered this reply over the phone, "Oh! I am keeping the thermometer from freezing."

Trustee T. B. Eastin was in town Monday.

Did you know that Bullitt County has 53 white teachers and 4 colored?

Did you know that 30 per cent of our teaching force is teaching for the first year?

Did you know that 23 of our school teachers come from other counties?

Did you know that Bullitt County has not a single "old maid" teacher?

Mrs. Chas. P. Weaver, both father and mother of "The School Improvement League" paid a glowing tribute to the school teacher Saturday.

Three well known ministers, a prominent physician, beside a number of lawyers and county officials attended the school lecture Saturday

Howard Roby, who has been teaching in this county, resigned his work Jan. 1, 1912, to assume clerkship of a well known hotel in Louisville.

Miss Lolah Hoagland, of Bardstown Junction, has completed her school at Nickol College and entered the County High School Monday.

Miss Ella Maude Magruder has returned to her home at Lebanon Junction, after a successful year teaching at Glen Ella.

S. N. Brooks, Secretary of the School Board, who is also engaged extensively in farming, gave his men a cool reception Monday - they put up ice.

Frank T. Harned, Chairman of Division #4, thinks of going to Florida unless there is a change in the weather soon.

Supt. Ora L. Roby made a trip to Belmont to organize the graded school there.

Prof. S. E. Hancock, who is conducting a very successful school at Adairsville paid his family here a visit during the holidays.

Ex-County Supt. Lindsay Ridgway and Prof. Thompson are on the sick list.

Prof. E. O. Jones, of Buffalo, Misses Janie Chappell, of Mt. Eden, Nora Johnson, of Beech Grove and Mary Barrall entered the High School Monday.

Rev. Roe, who is conducting the Normal class in civics, left Tuesday for Florida.

Don't forget Dr. Ryland's lecture at the Court House tonight.

Mr. Ike Triplett, chairman of the Bardstown Junction school board, was in town Monday and reports everything well in the school at the Junction.

All school news should be phoned to the nearest of these well-known teachers appointed to send school news to Prof. Thompson, (not to the Pioneer): Prof. Wilson, Grace Hardy, Zola Raymond, John Gaban, Amelia Lee Oaks, Mrs. Chas. Bridwell, Mayme Roby and Eunice Ridgway. Let us make this the greatest column even printed in the county.

Test of real education. A professor in the University of Chicago told his pupils that he should consider them educated when they could say yes to every one of these questions:

Has education given you sympathy with all good causes and made you espouse them?

Has it made you public-spirited. Has it made you a brother to the weak?

Have you learned how to make friends and keep them? Do you know what it is to be a friend yourself?

Can you look an honest man or a pure woman in the eye? Do you see anything to love in a little child? Will a lonely dog follow you in the street?

Can you be high-minded and happy in the meaner drudgeries of life? Do you think washing dishes and husking corn just as compatible with high thinking as piano playing or golf?

Are you good for anything to yourself? Can you be happy alone? Can you look out on the world and see anything except dollars and cents?

Can you look into a mud puddle by the wayside and see a clear sky? Can you see anything in the puddle but mud? Can you look into the sky at night and see beyond the stars? Can your soul claim relationship with the Creator? - Reprint Kansas City Star.

Death of an Aged Colored Man - Walter Johnson, an old colored man, said to be 108 years old, died at his home near Brooks Thursday evening of the infirmities of old age. He was formerly owned by Congressman Ben Johnson's father, and his first wife belonged to Mrs. Kate Riley, who deeded to them the place where "Old Walt," as he was known to all around, has lived since the war. He was buried Saturday at the family burying ground near Hebron.

Honor Crosses Given to celebrate the birthday of General Robert E. Lee, by Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy at the Louisville Free Public Library. Rev. Dr. J. S. Lyons, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church delivered the principal addresses.

Crosses of honor were bestowed upon Col. J. Stoddard Johnston, Samuel Reader, Samuel Hornbeck, and W. H. Tinsley, veterans, and Thomas Allen Boteler, son of a veteran. Wm. Jarvis Hardy, son and grandson of a Confederate soldier, was to have been presented with a cross, but was prevented by illness from being present. Mrs. Andrew M. Sea, president of the chapter, Mrs. J. C. Bethel, vice president, Mrs. J. Montgomery Hunter, secretary, and Mrs. Andrew Broaddus, treasurer, made the presentations. Mrs. Kate Tho... and Mrs. Merit O'Neal sang "Maryland, My Maryland". Reprint from the Louisville Times.

***William S. Collings

William S. Collings passed quietly and peacefully away Sunday, Feb. 4, 1912. He had been ill four months. He has often said, "I am ready for God's call any time." ...He was a good Christian man, a friend to the friendless and always had a word of comfort and cheer for each and every one. He was born Feb. 14, 1834, at his present home, had spent all his life in this same dear old place and when laid to rest, it was in front of his home on a beautiful western hillside. Funeral services conducted by Rev. M. M. McFarland. He was married ???? 19, 1858, to Miss Caroline Troutman, who with seven children survive him: J. F. Collings, of Shepherdsville, M. Lee Collings, of Newton, IL, G. S. and Elizabeth Collings of Belmont, Mrs. E. F. Patterson, of Chicago, IL, Mrs. T. C. Moreland, of Indianapolis, IN, J. W. Collings of Chicago, IL, also seven grandchildren, etc. United with the Baptist church in Belmont in 1857.

Mrs. Emma Troutman has joined the School Improvement League.

The course of lectures which Dr. Ridgway is giving to the Normal class is becoming a highly interesting and instructive feature. Other schools would do well to follow our plan.

Miss Zora Rayman, who is teaching a very successful school at Pleasant Hill, made a flying trip to Louisville Saturday.

Bullitt County teachers are receiving $4.63 for every pupil enrolled in the school census. This is more than any other county in the State, due to the fact that we have many dogs, few sheep, and because our county officers are going after the owners of dogs and collecting the tax. Strange to say that Bullitt County, the home of Mr. Croan, is leading in school per capita by the influence of "The Croan Dog Law", as we receive $447.26 from the dogs for

***Mrs. Edith Cochran Walker

Fell asleep, April 19, 1912, at 9:20 p.m., Mrs. Edith Cochran Walker, beloved wife of J. W. Walker, age 30 years, 5 months, 2 days, at the home of her father, James Cochran, where she, with her husband and son were visiting.

She spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Beeler, was bright and happy, remained to supper and with her brother, Gober Cochran, and her husband, was returning home when she was stricken with a chill. They hurried home and called physicians, but she was dead before any arrived.

Edith came into our midst when but a little girl, when her father bought his farm here, and grew into winsome womanhood here in our midst. "Pet", we called her, and a suitable name it was, for her sunny nature made her a general favorite. Full of girlish fun, and genial alike with the old and young, it was like a ray of sunshine to have her come into your home.

As a member of our Sunday School Class, we found her responsive and eager to give herself and her means to advance the interest of the class. She united with Little Flock Baptist Church in 1908 and continued a member until her death.

Since her marriage, she has been away from here much of the time, and Etc, Etc. Her funeral was held Sunday at the girlhood home, conducted by Rev. C. O. Hutcheson, interred at Hebron. More flowery words and a poem.

Miss Mary Tyler Brooks and Mr. Herman Taylor Williams, one of the most prominent and deservedly popular young couples of this county were married at 8:30 Wednesday evening at the handsome county home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Brooks Sr, "Brookland" on the Louisville Pike. Invitations were limited to relatives and a few close friends of the respective families, but these filled the house and made it quite a large, elegant affair. The editor regrets greatly his inability to be present, but circumstances entirely beyond his control prevented; consequently, we are unable to give as full an account of the wedding as otherwise would have been the case. We are indebted to the Louisville Times for the following pretty description of it.

The wedding of Miss Mary Tyler Brooks to Herman Taylor Williams was solemnized last Wednesday evening at 8:30 at "Brookland", at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Brooks, near Shepherdsville. The decorations were snowballs, narcissus and plumosa. Miss Virginia Brooks was her sister's maid of honor, and Misses Austine and Mary ..... were the bridesmaids. .... and Robert .... Tyler.

The bride wore a hand embroidered gown of white batiste cut with a square neck and half sleeves. Her tulle veil was caught with lilies of the valley and her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore an embroidered pike voile and the bridesmaids wore gowns of pale blue voile. The French bouquets were of lilies of the valley and white sweet peas.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Williams will be at home on a farm near Shepherdsville.

***W. H. Troutman

The death of W. H. Troutman of Bloomington, IN, is quite a shock to his many friends and relatives of this place. Mr. Troutman was a brother of Messrs R. L. and C. F. Troutman of Bullitt County. He was sixty-one years of age, was born in Bullitt County, where he lived until about thirty years of age when he moved to Lagrange, KY., where he engaged in business for a few years, moving from there to Greensburg, IN; where he lived for about twenty years. Mr. Troutman was a good businessman and had succeeded in accumulating a large amount of money and property.

He had, however, been in an afflicted condition for about seven years, partially paralyzed, his eyesight lost and almost entirely unable to hear. In this condition, he had been unable to get any relief whatever, having tried every remedy that medical science and skill could offer, and at last, all hope of relief leaving him, he became despondent and took his own life by firing a bullet through his heart, dying almost instantly. His remains were brought to the home of his sister, Mrs. M. E. Meredith and from there to Cave Hill for burial.

***Outing

Miss Mary Palmer Combs entertained her Sunday School class by taking them for an outing to the old Dunn Homestead a few miles from town.

The day was spent in delightful fashion with games, etc with a sumptuous collation served at noon served by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. J. F. Combs, who chaperoned the party. Besides her class of twelve girls and boys, two visitors, Miss Sarah Hume, Texas, niece of Mrs. Combs and Mary Cynthia Holsclaw, Zoneton, niece of Mrs. W. H. Cooper, were invited. The class, Laura Daniel, Pearl and Meta Cooper, Kathleen Croan, Anna Maraman, Oscar Pearl Jr, C. F. Troutman Jr, Roscoe Tucker, Hoke Harris, Wilmer Crenshaw, Theodore Combs, Wilson Daniel. Mr. Daniel took the happy crowd in one of his delivery hacks and thereby won the gratitude and future patronage of all. The day's pleasure was combined with a drive to the lily pond.

***James H. Combs

Death of James H. Combs, one of the best liked men Old Bullitt ever produced, died of Pellagra, at his home in Lexington, KY, August 4th, aged forty-nine years. He was the son of Olive P. and Margaret Combs, and spent his childhood, boyhood and young manhood in Bullitt County, where he worked on the home farm and clerked in several stores. Always polite and obliging, he made friends rapidly, and held them throughout his life. For many years, he has been with the Lexington and Eastern Railroad, first as a fireman, and for the past fifteen years in the capacity of a locomotive engineer. About twenty months ago, he was badly injured in a wreck, and has not done any work since that time. He is survived by three brothers, Rev. E. H., H. H., and W. M. Combs, and two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Bergin and Mrs. C. D. Evans and one daughter, Hazel. To each of the grief-stricken brothers and sisters and the fatherless little daughter, we extend our deepest sympathy, for there was no better brother, and no truer lasting friend than James Combs.

***Zosters

Quite a stir was created in our town last week when it was noised abroad that about all the boys were wearing zosters. Porter Bridwell, Sed Bell, Bud Combs, Hugo Rouse, Tom Martin, and in fact, all the boys wear zosters. Zosters, in this day and time, are very important articles of dress, and no young man is considered well dressed unless he wears one. Porter Bridwell has a very pretty zoster (sic), since he came back from the west, and the other boys have worn them quite as long. Deacon J. E. Collings, W. N. Griffin, Tom Hornbeck, Lindsay Ridgway and several other men worth living without zosters. The zoster is here to stay.

Misses Ophelia and Bertie Coleman will return tomorrow after a month's visit with Mrs. E. E. du Pont at Cape May, NJ

Miss Katharine Rouse is entertaining quite a number of her little friends with a house party. Miss Evelyn Bates is one of guests, and reports a delightful time.

Quite a crowd of friends visited Trunnell, Wathen & Co, at "All Inn Camp", Sunday, and a better time was never enjoyed by mortal man than those same friends were shown by the whole souled men who have charge of the camp. The dinner was all the most exacting critic could desire and when it came to the service, the chief danger lay in not eating all the waiters tried to make you take.

Joe Bowman was head cook or Chief, and assisting him were, Wax Simmons, Charlie Morrison, Henry Trunnell, Richard Wathen Jr, Neil Trunnell Jr, Charles Bridwell, and Henry Hamilton. Can you beat that outfit? When dinner was served, all the cooks became waiters and the way they passed dishes to guests would make the Seelbach waiters look sleepy. And how good that food tasted. No stuffy dining room, no flies, no heat.

It was an al fresco affair, and mighty enjoyable, too. A nice, quiet time was spent up there beneath the shade of those lordly elms and beautiful beeches, and when the lowering sun reminded the guests that it was time to go, they bade their princely hosts good bye with genuine regret. The funny features of the day were: the eating of dough balls by S. C. Bridwell, some fancy swimming by Henry Hamilton, a profound nap of sleep by Will Rouse and the unparalleled hospitality of Neil Trunnell and his two boys, and that of Richard Wathen Jr and Joe Bowman - Signed, one of the crowd.

Delightful Picnic - One of the most delightful affairs of the season was a picnic at Paroquet Springs, given by several of the young ladies, on Wednesday evening of last week, in honor of the Misses Stroud. The picnic party was conveyed to the Springs in a large buss, and received many jolts and scares at the heavy vehicle lumbered across the rough road. "Lone Grave" was first visited, and much interest was manifested by the visitors in the last resting place of the broken-hearted girl from the southland. After spending some time near the one mound, the party moved over to the well and partook of the famous water, and many "faces" were made by the ladies who had not drunk the water before. There was a skiff-ride to the mouth of the Floyd's Fork, in which all joined except Mrs. Brame and Miss May Lee, and on the return of the boating party, it was made known that the above mentioned ladies had prepared a bountiful repast, made up of almost everything good to eat. To say that everybody ate heartily would be expressing it mildly. There was no dearth of conversation or good spirits and everyone enjoyed the trip. Those in the party were: Mrs. Webb Brame, Misses Blanch and Bessie Stroud, Virgie Stringer, May Lee, Doris Miller, Sybil Brame, and Elizabeth Brame and Messrs Harvey Davis and J. R. Zimmerman.

***Facts about the Fair

Rev. Webb Brame, pastor of a local church, will have a pen of the now famous "Rhode Island White" chickens at the fair. Probably the only ones ever shipped to this county, and of course, no premium offered, but by the courtesy of Rev. Brame, our patrons will be given a chance to see this new breed of chicken.

Mr. Otis Russell, who has large pen of the "Hondan" chickens, recently imported to this country from France will at least have a pair on exhibition at our fair.

Mr. Richard Moore, of Cupio, the man who has completely revolutionized the sheep industry of the knob section, and who has had his stock imported direct from England, will be on hand with his fine herd of sheep. Our people who have thought our rough land almost worthless, will be given a chance to see what can be grown profitably and successfully on the knob section of our county.

Mr. Frank Henderson and Sons will again have charge of the dining hall and general refreshment stands.

Col. J. F. Collings, former sheriff of Bullitt county, will have exclusive charge of the police force, with 15 or 20 good, sober, upright men sworn in by Judge Leroy Daniel and a certificate issued by County Clerk Lindsay Ridgway, giving them the same authority as a sheriff or constable with arrest rights, with or without a warrant.

***The Fair

The fair is over, and everybody got wet or muddy. In spite of rainy week, the paid attendance was only about 300 less than last year.

A movement started to raise funds for tiling and piking the fairgrounds is headed by such men as S. M. Simmons, Ben Crist, J. F. Combs, Drs. Ridgway and Bates, W. T. Lee, Levy Troutman, G. S. Patterson, Nat Maraman and other good businessmen and we think every stockholder should give at least $5.00 to improve his Company.

The horsemen were well satisfied with Judge Kirby's decision and plan to return next year.

Col. J. F. Collings and his deputies made 14 arrests of "bootleggers" who were trying to sell their "rotten stuff" that would craze our men and boys. Over 100 bottles of bad whiskey was taken, the jail was comfortably filled and the "Gentlemen" were almost afraid to drink their own whiskey. Geo. Kulmer said he saw 'Deacon' Collings at several different places at almost the same time.

***House Robbers

On Friday, the last day of the Fair, several houses in the neighborhood of Shepherdsville and Bullitts Lick were broken into and robbed.

It seems that the robbers began by breaking into the house of Jim Maraman, then to Robt. F. Lee, entered his house and obtaining all they desired from these two houses, went to Web Drake's, then to Saddler, Herbert Croan's and Eph Quick's, all being broken into and entered by the same parties, who left at each succeeding place, some of the articles previously obtained.

Mr. Croan procured the blood hounds of Louis Gilbert of Highland Park, but the dogs were unable to render any assistance.

Fine Farm, Stock and Crop for Sale - The undersigned heirs-at-law of John Johnson will on September 17, 1912 at his late residence, two miles from Boston, KY offer for sale, the fine river farm on which he resided, containing nearly 800 acres at the confluence of the Beech Fork and Rolling Fork Rivers. This farm is located on good roads and has on it a railroad switch and station. There are about 200 acres of the richest bottom and the remainder of the land lays beautifully, is very fertile and in a high state of cultivation. A part of it is in timber. The farm is well improved, having on it a modern brick house with ten rooms and two large halls. It has three stock barns, tenant house and all necessary outbuildings. The farm will be subdivided and first offered on four parcels and then as a whole.

On the same day, W. H. Johnson, L. L. Kennady, and J. K. Fowler, Administrator of John Johnson, will sell at public auction, personal property consisting of mules, horses, cattle, hogs, corn, hay, farming implements, household and kitchen furniture. Signed W. H. Johnson, Elizabeth J. Stephens, Ruby Fowler and Pearl Kennady, heirs of John Johnson, deceased.

***B. E. Bradbury

The body of B. E. Bradbury, 45, formerly a restaurant keeper at Floyd and Green Streets, Louisville, was found by a searching party Wednesday morning lying at the foot of an embankment on the bank of the Ohio river fifteen miles below Louisville.

Mr. Bradbury had been visiting the home of Claud Ridgway, near Orell, for several days and on Tuesday night he disappeared, apparently for a walk, and failing to return, a searching party was formed and the entire night spent in looking for him.

In the pockets of the dead man were found a roll of bills and his watch. Deputy Coroner Kammerer does not suspect foul play. It was believed that he wandered to the river bank, and losing his balance, fell over the embankment. It was later brought out at an examination of the corpse that death was caused by organic health trouble. Bradbury is the nephew of J. J. Bradbury, of this place, and had some time ago purchased from Mr. Ridgway, the farm upon which he was when his death occurred. He had in the last few years prospered in his business and expected in a short while to give up his city business and move to the farm. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American War and is survived by a wife, one child and a sister.

From Frankfort, Ky. With scythe in hand, the great white plague reaped a harvest in Kentucky last year. Deaths from consumption totaled 5,131. During the fiscal year, there were 12,483 deaths from preventable disease. There were 60,732 births. Total deaths in the state were 30,583. Typhoid fever caused 1,035; cancer 908; violence 1,526; meningitis 630; grip 477.

***Reunion of Old Friends

September the 15th, Mrs. Mollie Barrall, widow of C. H. Barrall, is going to entertain some friends. W. T. Morrow, F. P. Straus and Samuel M. Simmons will be among them. Many years ago, Mrs. Barrall kept boarders in Shepherdsville and Messrs Straus, Simmons and Morrow boarded with her. They were young, ambitious men at that time, with bright hopes for success in the years to come. Mrs. Barrall, while showing the weight of years, is still the splendid, high toned Southern lady she was in these olden days. Here is hoping that the meeting between this splendid lady and her former boarders may be most pleasant and followed by many others just as pleasant.

Since then, Mr. Morrow has won distinction. He was judge of this county for three ..... won much praise. He is now a man of ample means and high public spirit.

Mr. Straus has been honored in his time, and besides having represented this district in the Legislature and the constitutional convention, has become one the greatest lawyers at the Kentucky Bar. He has become a great trial lawyer and is prominently identified with church work in Louisville where he lives.

Since then, Mr. Simmons has become a man of wide learning and ample fortune. Almost as well acquainted in Europe, and the countries of the South, as here in Bullitt where he was reared. He is noted for his experiences and knowledge of the world.

Our school is progressing very nicely, with a good attendance considering this torpid weather. Also a very great need for this district is a school building on a ground where the children could have a playground. There is absolutely no grounds, no roads to the house, and no water. It keeps some two boys about busy, carrying water for fifty or sixty some odd children. Indeed, this school needs a new building out on grounds suitable, two rooms, two teachers or a consolidations of this and Hobbs with three teachers. This would indicate progressiveness, and would result in a blessing you can hardly realize now, improvement in schools. Consolidation is coming as sure as the world stands.

The 1912 Bullitt Pioneer

Extracted from microfilm by Edith Blissett

Mr. Clarence Duvall had quite an accident while moving a well-boring machine. He fell from a wagon, breaking his leg near the hip. He is resting very well at this writing under medical care of Dr. Bates, of Shepherdsville.

Little Beatrice Powell has been quite sick for some days.

Next Saturday is to furnish another refreshing time in ice cream at the lawn fete, under the beautiful shade Maples at Mr. John Duvall's. All are invited. Proceeds go to painting the church.

The Distillery Co. of Chapeze is piping the spring water of the big Spring well to its distillery at Chapeze, with a very large pipe. They are also making several improvements about their buildings.

***Good School Houses - Good Water.

Our most excellent school board has erected some good school houses in the county, and in most instances has built a good cistern with each house. This is as it should be, for pure water is a necessity at a school house, as well as at other houses

The old fashioned well, usually about twenty feet deep and open at the top, is a pool of death. More deadly diseases lurk in its foul depths than can be found in an Arkansas swamp.

Some good road is being built in Bullitt at this time. The Louisville and Shepherdsville Pike is being put in fine condition. The new steam roller has done the work. With it, it is possible to build good roads at much less expense than in the old way.

When you contrast the roads in Bullitt County with those of Jefferson, do not forget that Bullitt spends about eight thousand dollars a year on her roads, while Jefferson County spends two hundred and fifty thousand on hers. They spend more money accidentally down there in Jefferson than we spend on purpose. And more than that, if we had the spare change which they waste in what is known as grafting, we could transform the bad roads of Bullitt into the finest of boulevards.

***Did you ever try this game?

Did you ever try to run a newspaper? We thought perhaps you had. We have heard you criticize the county papers and from your criticisms, had formed the idea that you were a trained journalist. And you do not know a blankety-blank thing about the business? We should have known it. As a rule, they (the people) criticize the things they know least about.

Running a paper is no cinch. We can name a thousand and two pleasanter things. The work is hard, while the pay is very poor. Did you (we mean the ladies) ever attempt to scrape up a meal on the spur of the moment!

It is no fun, and this is what the paper men have to do every issue. When you go to write, you have to be careful and get something that is not moth-eaten and worn out from continued use.

Suppose the paper men wrote just as the gossipers talk? The papers would be full of news this week, and next week, the editor would be full of buckshot. To record all the drunks, wife-beatings, family troubles and social scandals would make a breezy paper all right, but the people would rise up in their might and lynch the editor and burn his paper. We could make a specialty of writing up all the big snake stories and grave yard ghost stories, but that might prove too uncanny and ghostly for our delicate readers and then it might keep a lot a timid youths from going to see their best girls after night.

Maids to fill our columns with their experiences in love affairs. We feel sure that they could send in some very readable articles, and cause some of the boys to do some fine blushing. In connection with their articles, we could publish love letters on the side.

Or, better still, we might get each married man to give his written opinion of his mother-in-law, and follow that up with the mothers-in-law giving their opinions of their dear sons-in-law.

There are hundreds of ways in and by which we might make our paper more readable, but would we live long in the land of our farefathers? (sic) We could stir up a small storm each week, by jumping on some fellow and giving him a good skinning, but honestly, do you want to be the skinned fellow? Of course you do not, nor does the other fellow. No man can enjoy being abused by a newspaper. You do want us to tell you of matters which we told you about last year.

It would not do to advocate any particular religious organization, nor advocate it's views, because all other denominations would get red hot. What, therefore, must we publish? We know that we should not publish; tell us what we must publish.

For long, long years, the poor, despised, abused and poorly paid newspaper men of this county have been in the habit of publishing just what they could get, and we shall continue to do the same. Provided it is not so bad that we shall be in danger of being shot or hauled up in the federal court.

***Revival

The revival at the Baptist Church was one of the best meetings held in town for years. Rev. J. W. Hickerson and the pastor, Rev. Webb Brame conducted services.
