Plain, pert, precise, pithy pointers:

Our Gardens have all dried up, but our candidates haven't.

The State Journal refers to the suffragettes of Franklin County as "dimpled persuasive". Don't that get you?

It don't seem to make much difference whether the iron is hot or not with some laboring men, they strike anyhow.

The way most people estimate the sociability of their neighbor in these days of autos, is by the number of times he takes them joy riding.

About the only handsome thing you can find about a drunken man is his strawberry nose, and that is spoiled because of its surroundings.

In Wisconsin and Pennsylvania, you have to get a doctor's certificate before you can get married as both of these states have passed eugenic marriage laws.

Champ Clark very truthfully says that our public schools will not be good until the teachers are paid enough to make teaching a life's profession.

The railroads are opposed to extension of the parcel post because the express companies are good customers and large holders of their stocks.

If some of our wise legislators at Washington should amend the newspaper law regarding statements of ownerships, etc of newspapers and make it include a sworn statement as to where the editor got all of his editorial dope, we fear that many of the tribe would be compelled to make some mortifying statements.

Bullitt County Fair Notes.

Now that the election is over and folks have time to devote their time and attention to the quiet pursuits of life, we naturally turn to an annual event that has placed Bullitt County on the map, The Great Bullitt County Fair. "It is going to happen" this year and you, of course, need recreation and you want to see your friends, so it goes without saying that you will be amongst the thousands who attend.

Several car loads of tiling have just been placed through the grounds, all the walks and roads are now being graded and piked, so if it does happen to rain this year there can be no possible chance of a "muddy reception" for our patrons.

Two years, this fair has had the misfortune to come during a rainy season, but not withstanding that fact, all concessionaires have paid more for privileges this year than ever before and the general refreshment privilege has brought over $100 more than ever before and if you happen to hear a fellow say "the fair boom is over", he likely wants to buy your stock.

The President, Dr. Ridgway, and the vice-president, Wilson Summers, received sealed bids last Monday upon policing the grounds and awarded the contract to Lee, Simmons and Co., so the public will be assured of the same high class order that characterized the 1912 meeting, which was so ably conducted by Mr. J. F. Collings.

President Ridgway and vice-president Summers are meeting most every day (since the election) to decide plans for making this the greatest fair ever held by the association.

We are booking many horses this year among which are some of the fastest ever shown here, and with the addition of the four special rings, the public may be assured of many interesting events this year.

Many amusement concessions have just been engaged, such as games, shows, wheels,

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

minstrels, a miniature railway and a nice new merry-go-round, so when you see some of those splendid horse shows then get your friend, visit some of these amusements and you will at once see that the midway has not been neglected.

Every police will be sworn in as a special detective under the recent "Chautauqua Act" and arrests will be made promptly.

Mr. Henry Hardaway will have charge of the mens departments in the floral hall and Mrs. Mary Collings or her assistant will have charge of all ladies departments and all information will be cheerfully given by them upon the day of the fair and questions should be submitted to them when entries are made.

A Card of Thanks

To the Democratic voters of Bullitt and Spencer Counties:

I return to you my most grateful and heartfelt thanks for the splendid vote and the handsome majority you gave me at the Primary last Saturday in making me your nominee for the position of Representative for these two fine old counties in the next legislature of Kentucky. If elected, and feel sure I will be, I again promise you to my best endeavors to represent the interests of the farming, laboring and business elements of the two counties, and to carry out the pledges and promises made during the canvass.

I have made a clean fight and have kept to the very letter the pledge I gave you "not to use money, whiskey or other thing of value" to secure the nomination, and, have filed with the Chairman of the Democratic Committee of Bullitt County, my affidavit to that effect, made between 4 and 6 o'clock P.M. the day of the primary. Under the circumstances, I feel confident I owe my nomination to solid, reliable and unpurchasable voters of the two counties who ??? this matter solely according to the dictates of their own conscience and their best judgment.

It was through the columns of my paper that the movement to prevent the use of money, liquor or other thing of value was started and vigorously pressed to the close of the campaign and I now promise that as your representative, I will support such legislation as will tend to prevent corruption of the ballot or debauchery of the voters.

I trust you will each and every one support the democratic tickets nominated in the two counties and roll up the usual handsome majorities for the party at the November election.

Again thanking you and assuring you that I will use my best efforts in promoting your interests, I remain,

Yours very truly, J. W. Barrall

Notice

I desire to thank my many friends who so ably assisted me in the recent primary and made possible my re-election.

For those who supported my opponent, I have a kind feeling and hope all will now join hands in the support of the nominees in November. - C. P. Bradbury

A Card of Thanks

I desire to thank my friends for their support and influence in my race last Saturday and I hope that I may be able to give my duties my very best efforts and closest attention. - C. A. Masden

First Annual Masonic and Eastern Star Picnic. All-day picnic given August 30th.

Special Term of Bullitt Fiscal Court.

The special term of the Bullitt Fiscal Court was held August 4th, 1913, with the following magistrates present: Esquires Coakley, Eastin, Hall and Croan. Present Hon. Leroy Daniel, Judge.

Moved by Coakley and seconded by Eastin that this court receive sealed bids for cleaning and painting Greenwell's Ford Bridge and Chamber's Pond Bridge and that said bids will be received and opened August 13, 1913 at the court house in Shepherdsville, Ky. Vote unanimous. Attest, Lindsay Ridgway, Clerk.

Notice

I wish to thank my many friends who stood by me and gave me their hearty support in the recent primary. To those who were against me, I have only the kindest feelings. W. S. Rouse.

A Card of Thanks

I wish to thank my friends all over the county who were so loyal to me and my efforts last Saturday. Most especially do I feel grateful to the trustees, teacher and the splendid boys and girls who so nobly stood by me, and to those who voted against me, I have nothing but the best feeling and I also feel that I have the satisfaction of knowing that I defeated an honorable man and one that used neither money or whiskey to gain votes, and as to myself, I can truthfully say the same.

By again thanking all for their support and influence and hoping that there may be a great imment (sic) made in our schools the coming term, I am yours gratefully, Ora L. Roby.

A Card of Thanks

I take this method of thanking the Democratic voters of Bullitt County for their generous support in the primary last Saturday. For those who chose to support my worthy opponents, I have the best of feelings. Now that the fight is over, let us close up ranks and move forward against the enemy in November. I pledge my best efforts toward the election of every nominee. - J. R. Zimmerman.

Home Garden Clubs Growing.

Campfire Girls of Louisville use vacant lots. Advice from an expert.

Children taught to help furnish their own tables with fresh vegetables. Idea is spreading to country towns. Future men and women in close contact with growing things.

The continual cry, "Back to the soil," that is heard in the newspapers and magazines is keeping the attention of the people in the country as well as those in the city fixed on gardening and farming. This is not only true of the small town

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

and the back country, but is also true of our big cities, for home garden clubs are growing in popularity and in numbers each season.

This spring, the city of Louisville organized a home garden club that gardening among men, women and children, and especially the children, might be pushed. That the work might be real and that definite results might be obtained, vacant lots were secured at various points and model gardens planted. A man who had practical experience was engaged to take charge of the work and is now busy moving from place to place suggesting plans and methods by which the children can help furnish their own tables with vegetables fresh from their own gardens.

The photo which accompanies this article was taken on the outskirts of Louisville, where a group of four Campfire Girls have a model four plot garden.

This work will have a vital effect upon the men and women of tomorrow by giving them an understanding and a growth which can only come through close contact with the soil and growing things. Education is gradually shifting to a rational use of books and a fuller use of the life which the child leads in the garden, in the home and under blue shies. It means an education that makes red blood throb in young veins; it means an education that does things in the everyday world; it means an education that is close to the primitive; it means an education that fits the child for life.

Stomach Trouble for Five Years. Majority of friends thought Mr. Hughes would die, but one helped him to recovery.

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

Pomeroyton, Ky. – In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: I was down with stomach trouble so bad, at times, I thought I would surely die.

I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good.

I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep and all my friends except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I now have been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me – haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began taking it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me.

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients and acts gently, yet surely; It can be freely used by young and old and should be kept in every family chest.

Get a package today, only a quarter.

That Wonderful Event. If there is a time above all times when a woman should be in perfect condition, it is the time previous to the coming of her babe.

During this period, many women suffer from headache, sleeplessness, pains of various description, poor appetite, and a host of other ailments which should be eliminated in justice to the new life about to be ushered into this world.

Dr. Pierce's favorite prescription is a scientific medicine carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician and adapted to the needs and requirements of woman's delicate system. It has been recommended for over forty years as a remedy for those peculiar ailments which make their appearance during "the expectant" period. Motherhood is made easier by its use. Thousands of women have been benefitted by this great medicine.

Your druggist can supply you in liquid or tablet form, or you can sent 50 one-cent stamps for a trial box, of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription Tablets, to Dr. Pierce, at Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo.

It is your privilege to write to Dr. Pierce for advice, and it will be gladly given free of charge. Of course, all communications are confidential.

Good Work of Canning Clubs.

Girls and women taught to save vegetables, aided by the government.

Experts furnished to give instruction in scientific canning while Kentucky Agricultural Department loans modern outfits. Women are also showing interest in the work.

The garden behind each and every farmhouse produces each summer more vegetables than the family can use. When winter comes, the farmer and his family have to buy canned tomatoes, peas, corn and beans at the cross roads store.

The Girls' Canning Clubs that the United States Government is developing to nine counties in Kentucky this summer are part of a huge movement to check this huge loss in fine food and money that totals millions annually. Besides the saving in money, there is another point which is commonly overlooked. In canning vegetables that are home grown, the housewife is sure she has a first-class article.

That the work may be done in the best possible manner, the United States Government is furnishing experts to demonstrate this home canning work. The State Agriculture Department is loaning each of the nine counties a home canning outfit, and the counties themselves are furnishing interested teachers, parents and wide-awake country girls to form the clubs.

In Jefferson County, clubs have been developed at Valley Station. O'Bannons, and Okalona (sic) During the latter part of May, the government expert gave three demonstrations. Of course, there were no ripe tomatoes or beans in the country that early in the season, so they were bought in the city and taken to the schoolhouses where the clubs were to meet. Besides the girls who were members of the clubs, many mothers and interested housekeepers came and brought their dinners so they might get the benefit of all the work that was done.

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

After the first lot of tomatoes had been put through the canner by the expert in forty minutes, the girls were thoroughly interested and continued the work. It was remarkable how fast the work went with five girls as busy as beavers. As one old farmer expressed it: "Every year I've been on my place, I've made up my mind to plant fewer tomato vines, for I have more tomatoes than we can use and give away. But I don't believe I'll cut them down in number this year if the girls can do the work this fast. I've just been figuring on it a little bit, and this little canner that'll set on top of a one-burner gasoline or coal oil stove will can sixteen quarts of tomatoes every three-quarters of an hour. That is 208 quarts in a ten hour day."

"Yes," remarked one of the housekeepers, "and the great beauty of it is, with the temperature you can get in one of these canners, you can can anything and be sure of its being perfectly sterile. You don't have to use anything with beans, for instance, but a pinch of salt and a little water."

"Well, it took a long time to get old mothers in this part of the county to use thermometers to test their cream before churning, and I reckon it'll take some time to get them to use modern canners with thermometers so they will be certain of results in canning."

Celebration in Louisville

Kentucky metropolis will commemorate incidents in War of 1812.

Hundred Years of Peace

Battles which Kentuckians won and massacres in which they suffered will be reproduced in fireworks, and shams on land and water.

A week's celebration, which Louisvillians declare will be the greatest and most spectacular in the history of celebrations in America, will be held in the Kentucky metropolis for seven days, commencing September 29 and will be the climax of a series of celebrations held in a dozen lake cities, to commemorate the sufferings and victories of American arms in the War of 1812 as well as to focus attention on the achievements of a century of peace. The crucial and decisive engagements of the War of 1812 was the battle of the Thames, fought and won on Canadian soil October 5, 1813. The series of celebrations, which will held in America will close in Louisville, October 5, 1913, and just one hundred years from the hour that Col. Richard M. Johnston, afterward Vice President of the United States, slew the Indian chief, Tecumseh. President Woodrow Wilson will probably be addressing a crowd of 100,000 people in Louisville, the home of many of the troops who fought in the battle of the Thames.

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

Kentucky was assigned the closing and choice date of the celebration because of the distinguished part played by the Kentuckians in the War of 1812. Kentucky began to play her part in the generation before the war opened, when she sent Gen. George Rogers Clark and other Louisville soldiers into the hostile wilderness which they wrested from the French and Indians and out of which was afterward carved the great States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan.

Kentucky was the last state which could have benefitted from the war, inasmuch as it was brought about chiefly by the British impressment of American seamen, none of whom were Kentuckians, whereas should war prevail, the unfriendly Indians on the frontier of the border states could be expected to commit atrocities from the name "Dark and Bloody Ground." However, it was chiefly Henry Clay, in the Kentucky Congressional Delegation, that forced President Madison to declare the second war with Great Britain, and Kentucky furnished forty per cent of her fighting population to go into that war, and at the close of the war, of the listed dead more than eighty per cent were the names of Kentuckians. Kentucky troops, to a man, were massacred at the River Raisin and again at the first attack on Fort Meigs.

When the time came to man Perry's new ?ewn ships, he selected Kentuckians unaccustomed to the motion of lakes to mount into the insecure rigging and from that vantage point, with their practiced eye and unerring aim, fired down upon the British and won the Battle of Lake Erie. Practically every officer and soldier in the battle of the Thames was a Kentuckian, excepting alone Gen. William Henry Harrison, who, however, held his commission as Major-General from the Kentucky Legislature. The charge of the Forlorn Hope, about the briefest, most terrible and most heroic attack narrated in the annals of warfare, consisted exclusively of Kentucky soldiers when nineteen of them and their twenty horses went down to certain death. It was the Kentucky sharpshooters who are credited with having won the Battle of New Orleans after the war had in reality closed.

Kentucky proposes to reproduce most of these scenes of the War of 1812 in the Louisville celebration. The Battle of the Thames will be reproduced on land in Cherokee Park, topographically situated similar to the land on which was fought the Battle of the Thames, and every detail of the sham battle will be as nearly historically correct as can be done. Louisville will take advantage of her magnificent river frontage in order to celebrate suitably the Battle of Lake Erie. The actual battle will be depicted in a gorgeous entertainment of fireworks and all morning and all afternoon preceding the engagement there will be boat races, life saving feats and aquatic sports. A historical pageant, depicting various scenes of the War of 1812 will also include a magnificent floral parade, such as made Louisville famous a year ago, and will include civic and military parades many miles in length. Drills and exercises by 10,000 costumed school children will be held in the First Regiment Armory, a mammoth ---- continued elsewhere ?????

Bullitt County Fair Notes

A representative of this fair who attended the Spencer County Fair last week booked several good strings for this fair and in addition, made arrangements for several side attractions, including a first-class band of minstrels and an old plantation show.

W. T. Lee, William Simmons and James Pope, three very public spirited citizens and at present, directors in this fair are spending most of their time at the fair grounds and with the help of Harve Miller, Port Thompson and Dick ? Mattingly, they have made some splendid improvements in the grounds. In fact, it is worth the price of admission to see these improvements.

The single judge system will again be in the show rings which proved so popular with our patrons last year, when Col.

Kirby of Bowling Green, Kentucky, rushed along so rapidly with the various rings, no meddling, no quarreling, no protests, no ??? for certain judges, and no delays securing competent ones, but all decisions were made as they should be in exact accord with one premium list.

Claud Pemberton, of Elizabethtown, and Col. Kirby are now engaged as judges at various State Fairs throughout the South.

All judges appointed in the Floral Hall are requested to be on hand Tuesday morning, August 19th, and should come to the Lower Secretary's office and get their badges.

All police selected by Lee Simmons and Company, who have been approved are requested to appear before Lindsay Ridgway, County Clerk, Saturday, August 16th, to be sworn in as special detectives for duty the coming week.

A nice new stand has just been completed on the grand stand for refreshments on the promenade and ice cream, orangeade and refreshments may be had without having to go below, and perhaps miss one of those "big special speed ?? rings" which has attracted considerable attention all over the State.

In case the drouth continues all farmers should attend the Bullitt County Fair anyway for certain atmospheric conditions favorable to rain have for a number of years prevailed in this county about the third week in August, so come to the fair and after you have taken in all the sights, then go up on the big grand stand, take a seat by the side of Farmer Smith and "listen to the patter of the rain on the roof."

Mr. B. L. Bowman will have some of his fine Lester Pianos on exhibition at the fair this year and interested in buying a piano or player should see him. His prices are right and his goods are all the most exacting could demand.

Make all your arrangement to be on hand next week for not withstanding the long drouth, many things point to one of the best fairs ever held in the way of horses and amusements.

Drouth Serious

The drouth is Bullitt County is very serious and each day it gets worse. The corn crop will be almost a total failure. Grass has all about dried up and pasture is scarce. Creeks, springs, and ponds are nearly all dry and stock water is very scarce. No rain of consequence has fallen for about two months. Salt River is lower than it has been for years. Unless rain falls in a few days, some of the farmers say they are going cut their corn and save the fodder.

"There is a church in the valley by the wildwood,

No lovelier place in the dale;

No spot is so dear to my childhood,

As that little gray church in the vale,

Oh, come to the church in the dale.

Independent Candidates

We have been asked what our course would be in case there were Independent Candidates. As well ask the course water would take when poured out on a hillside. We are for the Democratic nominees first, last and all the time. Party organization must be kept up.

What party does the independent belong to? For whom did he vote last fall? Is he seeking to tear down the Democratic party? If so, how can he muster up face enough to ask the support of good Democrats?

The Pioneer News intends to make a clean but hard fight for all the nominees of the late primary. We ask every Democrat in Bullitt to fall in line and see that every man selected in the late primary is elected in November. They are good men and deserve it and no man can afford to go into a primary and cast his ballot, and then because his man was not nominated, vote for a bolter or independent candidate.

Bullitt County Democrats are rejoicing over the nomination for J. R. Layman for Circuit Judge in the ninth district. The Judge spoke here last fall at our rally and won a place in the affections of the Democrats.

Wm. Bradley has written to the Navy Department inquiring about a man named Pullman Palace Carr. Just as soon as the Senatorial Primary is held, Mr. Bradley will be inquiring about a Pullman to pull Bradley back to Kentucky.

Resolved: When you buy at the home store, you see what you buy. And you don't have to pay the freight. Come to us. We can suit you and deliver the goods now.

Why do you send your money out of your own community and take a chance on what you are getting, and then wait and pay the freight? If everybody sent away for what they want, there would not be any money spent at home. You would have to leave town, for you could not earn a living here. When you buy from us, you see what you buy, and see the best for the least possible price. We want your business, not because we are your home people, but because we give you better stuff for your money than you can get by sending away. We depend on high quality and right prices to get your trade. - Troutman Bros., Mammoth Store, Shepherdsville, Ky.

Ranked at the very top.

David Rankin was a big farmer and he knew his business. He owned the largest com farm in the world, about 35,000 acres down in Missouri. He devoted his life to the pleasant study and practice of right farming, and he succeeded mightily, for he made $4,000,000 in the business of farming. David Rankin said: "The manure spreader is the most efficient money-maker on the place."

It's warm praise to be ranked above all other farm machines, but the spreader deserves it. Soils rebel when crop after crop is taken from them, without return of fertilizer. Return every bit of manure to the soil. The I. H. C. manure spreader will save you much disagreeable hard labor, and will spread evenly, and will make one ton go as far as two tons spread by hand.

I. H. C. Manure spreaders are built to suit you, to do best work for the buyer in every case, to convince him that he has made the wisest purchase. Every detail in the construction has a purpose, for which it was made after thorough tests and experiment. They have the maximum of strength and endurance.

You will find all styles and sizes in the I. H. C. spreader line. They will cover the bound with a light or heavy coat, as you choose, but always evenly, up hill or down. There are high and low machines, with steel frames, endless or reverse aprons, but always giving best possible service.

A letter to our nearest office will bring full information about the I. H. S. spreader best adapted to your work. Offices at Cincinnati, O., Evansville, Ind., Knoxville, Tenn., Memphis,

Castoria, the kind you have always bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All counterfeits, imitations and "just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of infants and children - Experience against experiment.

What is Castoria? Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and soothing syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither opium, morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys worms and allays feverishness. It cures diarrhea, and wind colic. It relieved teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. It assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea - The mothers friend.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H.

Fletcher, the kind you have always bought.

A wise man jollies a woman. A fool tries to force her.

Seven firemen are known to be dead, other bodies are thought to be in the ruins and twenty-four persons are injured at Milwaukee as a result of a wall falling.

Pronounced activity in the drilling of oil wells in Kentucky counties bordering the Ohio River, west of Louisville, is forecast for the coming winter.

Forty-six survivors of the steamship, Volturno, which recently burned at sea, were brought to New York yesterday.

Wm. Bastain, for five years regarded in San Francisco as a reputable wholesale jeweler, confessed to having committed many burglaries.

Wreck

Many Shepherdsville people were hurt Friday night, when 28 ran into a freight train in the yards at Highland Park. The accident was due a heavy fog according to railroad officials.

Passengers on the accommodation train were thrown against seats and into the aisle. Some were badly bruised. As soon as the news of the wreck spread, several doctors and hundreds of residents of the suburb of Highland Park went to the scene. The injured were helped from the train and at one were given medical attention.

Breaks Arm

"Uncle" Jack Rickerson, a well known carpenter, fell from a building and broke his arm in two places and his head bruised.

Popular Young Man Passes Away.

Mr. Clay Phelps, aged 29 years, a popular young man died at his home near here Tuesday morning with that dreaded disease, typhoid fever. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Phelps. He was a bright young man and will be greatly missed in that neighborhood.

He leaves a father, mother several relatives and a number of friends to mourn his loss.

Pie Supper

There will be pie supper given at Oak Grove School House, November 1st. Everybody invited.

Vote for Democratic Nominees.

Let every Democrat go to his voting place next Tuesday and cast his vote for the Democratic nominee. They are good, deserving man and entitled to the vote of every man who participated in the primary election.

A. E. Funk, the nominee for County Judge, is a man of exceptional ability and will make one of the best Judges the county has ever had. He is a fine road-builder, having helped to start the building of metal roads in Bullitt County. A farmer and a fruit grower and a man of affairs. He can be depended upon to take care of the county business in first class style.

Robinson Lee, candidate of Jailer, is a fine fellow. He has made a good record while jailer and should be supported by every Democrat in the county. Always on the job, he makes a good jailer.

Luther Kelley, nominee for magistrate in Pine Tavern, is a hustling young man of fine business ability and will make a good magistrate. As all the other Democratic nominees for magistrate will be elected without opposition, the people of Pine Tavern should be certain to elect a Democrat as he can do more good and accomplish more than a Republican, who will be at outs with the other magistrates. Let every voter in Pine Tavern, who wants a man who can do something for his district, vote for Luther Kelley. Let every Democrat in Bullitt County go to the polls and vote for all the nominees.

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

(Paragraph on Independents)

The nominees are good, clean men and deserve the support of all the voters. Remember that Funk and Lee for county officers, Kelley for magistrate in Pine Tavern and Zimmerman for State Senator have opposition and be sure to vote for them along with all the other nominees.

Better Look Out

There is a postoffice ruling which imposes a fine of five hundred dollars or a year's imprisonment on any one who through carelessness or otherwise takes mail from the postoffice not belonging to him and fails to return it immediately. This applies to newspapers as well as letters. To say it's the postmaster's fault cuts no figure under the ruling. Better look over your mail before leaving the office - Exchange.

Vote on Two Amendments

In addition to city and county officers to be selected at the November election, which will be held Tuesday, Nov. 4, the voters of Bullitt County will have the opportunity to vote upon two proposed amendments to the State Constitution, according to the act of the last Legislature. One of the amendments, if adopted, provides for the working of convicts upon public roads and bridges, and other amends section 171 of the Constitution to allow the classification of property for taxation and all laws passed in regard thereto shall be submitted to a vote of the people. To the Voters of Bullitt County

Gentlemen - I want to say to the people that believe in the right thing and in the way of taking care of property of which this county owns. The good people of the county do not want a jailer to make him rich, neither do they elect him to run around serving warrants. That belongs to the Deputy Sheriff.

Gentlemen, it is a hard thing to have to say and a disgrace and a miserable feeling flashes over me to think the good voters of this county have been misled like they have. Gentlemen, if you will elect me to this office, I will guarantee that I will do my duty as jailer, your property will be taken care of and that the jail will be kept like your house and the court house will be kept nice and clean.

Now, good people, understand the Independent Ticket is nothing more than a half gard (sic) for the people, so if we make a mistake in the primary, we can recall and put in a man who will make a good official.

Now, gentlemen, if you will come out on Nov. 4th and give me your support and elect me jailer of Bullitt County, I will surely appreciate your vote and I will try to make you the best jailer you ever had. Respectfully, W. M. Milliam (sic)

Mrs. M. A. Barrall, aged 78 years, while walking in yard at her home near Books, fell Wednesday morning and dislocated her arm. Last reports, she was resting easy.

Old Charter wins game

After nine innings of the hottest and prettiest kind of ball playing last Saturday, Old Charter took the scalps of the local boys by the score of 11 to 9. Gus Hall was the star for Old Charter. He pitched with head and hands. His high inshoots (sic) played around the chin whiskers of the home boys like horse flies about the head of a homesick mule.

Little Cooper, the incomparable shortstop played up to the Cooper standard and that is enough. He was all over the field gathering in all that came near him, hitting like a wagner (sic) and running wild on the bases. The Barger boys, at first and third, played up to the handle, copping all kinds of bounders, grounders, nailing wild throws and putting the ball on belated base runners. At second, Tinnell did some fine work, taking care of some hot grass-cutters and setting his men on several fine throws from Masters, who did stellar work behind the bat. Earl Hall is one of the outer pasture fields, got every blessed ball that was sent out his way and Nahn, (sic) the sky-scraping, cloud-knocking center fielder, "took them in" and batted like the proverbial house afire.

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

The other outer-garden kid did his part well for Frank Mathis is some fielder. All the boys played well and deserved to win and we hand them all kinds of roses and congratulations. There was no rough work on eighter side and while our boys lost, they did well and need not feel at all ashamed of the game. As matters now stand, Shepherdsville has won one game and Old Charter one. Shepherdsville won by a score of 25 to 6, while Old Charter won by a score of 11 to 9. Total scores for Shepherdsville 34, for Old Charter 17, or just half. So, it is not so bad after all. From the two teams, a county team can be selected that will hustle any country team in the State and such a team will be put in the field next year.

Pie Supper

There will be a Pie Supper given by the teachers and pupils of Pitts Point School, Saturday night, November 8th at the school house. The proceeds to Price $2,500. Write to owner or come and see. Ad Buckman, RFD 1, Shepherdsville, Ky.

For Sale

Pure bred Buff Orphington Cockerels. Apply to Mrs. M. M. Beeler, Huber, Kentucky.

Take Easy Game

The Old Charter boys made Fressor (sic) Sanders and his boys take in their colors Saturday afternoon. We don't know what their colors were before the game, but is was easy to see they were blue after the smoke cleared away and they counted the score, which was 11 to 9 in Old Charter's favor. You could easy tell from the Fressor's face that he and his boys had lost the race. It was nice for Old Charger boys to win the last game of the season, but they did not expect to pick it up so easy. They want to speak to Shepherdsville for their first game next season so they can practice up for Belmont for their second game. Well, all I can say for the Shepherdsville Blues is this. They had better get them a green apply and play after school hours and probably they can play by next season.

Shepherdsville, Shepherdsville,
Bum, Bum, Bum.

Old Charter, Old Charter, Run,

School for Wives

A school for wives is the latest and it should prove to be a good thing. The institution is located in New York City and its management announces it will give a four year course for girls, who, upon graduation and marriage, will be qualified to spend their husband's income to the best advantage and keep an account book that will "come out straight at the end of the month". Dr. Stuart H. Rowe, principal of the school, says that upon completion of the wives' course, the sweet girl graduates will be able to cook a dinner, converse intelligently on literature, history and equal suffrage, that she will be able to trim her own hats artistically, keep it free from germs and play her part in a social way. Dr. Rowe adds that the course was suggested to him by the reflection that 65 per cent of the girls now in school will marry sooner or later and that they are being fitted for any vocation rather than that of matrimony. It wouldn't be a bad idea to have such a school in every city and town in the country.

Educational Column

The following teachers attended the teachers meeting here Saturday: Geneva Joyce, Chas. Hardesty, Emmett ?? Crenshaw, Birdie Ball, Verna Funk, Marjorie Harris, Bertha Engle, Jennie Carpenter, Blanche Troutwine, J. H. Sanders, Mary Collings, Mary Hall, Belinda Crenshaw, Nellie May Scott, Nadine Melton, Mary Dawson, Charles Daniels, Zora Raymon, Cecil Funk, Kate French, N. H. Basham, Lena Ice, Stella Troutwine, Wallace Smith, Anna May Troutwine, Ruth Van Meter, Chas. G. Bridwell, and Ora L. Roby. All teachers who failed to attend the above meeting or the meeting at Lebanon Junction may attend at Mt. Washington, Saturday, Nov. 21st or at Cedar Creek, Nov. 28th. Watch this column for your teacher's name.

Don't fail to read the "dog ordinance" passed by the county school board.

Schools just visited: Woodsdale, Miss Ruth Van Meter, teacher. Here, we find a very fine school, the teacher teaching her third term, many large pupils, 26 enrolled, 17 present, 19 enrolled in "moonlight school", new well, new pump, new maps, new blackboard, new teachers chair and desk, outbuildings, house just painted and flowers growing in the windows. Most of these improvement were purchased by the district.

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

Hobbs, Miss Lola Hoagland, teacher. Here, we find the best school we have ever found here. 35 enrolled, 27 present, and both teacher and pupils interested and seemed to be doing good work. An old school house and bad play ground, bad water and a location that should soon be changed by the school board as soon as possible.

Greenbriar, Miss Edna Starks, teacher. Here, we seen many improvement, new roof and house repaired, just paint on both sides, large room, good stove, 43 enrolled, 28 present and 40 enrolled at the night school, nice new maps, globe, etc. just purchased by the school but badly in need of water.

Needmore, Chas. Daniel, teacher. Now we visit one of our very largest rural schools, 62 enrolled , 50 present, 30 enrolled at night school, a good house, well painted and in good conditions, but too small for such a large school, good outbuildings, plenty of shade, students well informed and doing splendid work in all branches and if the district continues to grow, Needmore will very soon "needmore" teachers.

Program for the teachers's meeting at Mt. Washington, Saturday Nov. 21st at 1 p.m.

Invocation - Rev. Coward

The whims of patrons and how to meet them - Chas. G. Bridwell.

Tardiness and how prevented - Wallace Smith and Sara Williams.

Read this Offer and Come to the Show.

The second show by the Rice Bureau under the auspices of Bullitt Lodge at the Masonic Temple, Shepherdsville, KY will be given Tuesday night, December 1st, 1914.

After the entertainment of E. Willie Robinson, the Masonic committee wrote to the Rice Bureau and received this instructions. "Your committee can tell the people generally that the Concordia Concert Co. will please and if it does not please, you need not pay for it and you can refund the money to anyone who is dissatisfied."

The Concordia Concert entertainment will be given upon those conditions. This show consists of 3 young ladies who are in no way connected with the first entertainment. It is strictly a musical show and these ladies have made a success of all their entertainments and comes very highly recommended.

This show is entirely different from the first show, so let everyone come on Dec. 1st and make it a success and remember, if you are not satisfied, your money will be refunded.

Season tickets are good for the show and reserved seats are now on sale at the Bullitt County Bank.

Good Work

In the late campaign, some of the best and most efficient work was done by C. P. Bradbury, Chairman of the Campaign Committee. "Brad", as Press is called by his host of friends, is one of the best Democrats in the State, and a hard and untiring worker, and the way he worked for party success was one of the big factors in bringing us a big victory.

One of Our Best Physicians Gone.

"The Medical World" of Knob Creek has been very much shocked by the withdrawal of the celebrated Dr. Pauley, one of our best qualified young physicians. Dr. Pauley's Ipecac compound is a great improvement over all previous headache medicines and we hope that he will soon be back among us. Below is a list of prescriptions Dr. Pauley offers free:

For Headache - One teaspoon full of Ipecac and a broken dose of Askerine, followed by a violent shaking of the hands and feet.

For Heartburn - One peck of raw potatoes before each meal, chop very fine and eat slowly.

For Ear Ache - One pint of "ground hog" oil poured into the ear. The oil must be very warm.

The above is just a few of the numerous remedies Dr. Pauley has, and we feel sure that anyone that has any other ailment will be justified in calling at "Dr.'s Office" at "Brooks Sta.", Home Phone - 97642.

Cattle Killed

18 head of cattle belonging to Mr. Clem Manning and said to be infected with the foot and mouth disease were killed last Friday and buried in lime. The killing of those cattle may have been all right, but the whole affair is plastered over with suspicious circumstances, and

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

the conduct of J. W. Newman was over-bearing and tyrannical.

As before state, the cattle came from Chicago and were followed by federal inspectors and located at Manning's. When found, only three were inflicted and they were separated from the others, but when Mr. J. W. Newman came out the following day, he put them back with the others and ordered the whole herd killed. Mr. Manning offered to have the three infected cattle killed at his expense and isolate the other fifteen, but Mr. Newman would not hear to it and when called up to by C. P. Bradbury, said, "They had to be killed if he had to call out the militia, as if the law abiding people of Bullitt were out-laws.

We may not have the lordly mansions and fertile farms which make Mr. Newman's home County so rich, but we respect and obey the law. Dr. Smith (our Dave), did all he could to have the cattle kept isolated until they showed some signs of having the disease, but Mr. Newman would not hear to it.

Dr. Smith, federal inspector, says there would have been no danger of spreading the disease if the cattle had been kept where no other cattle could get near them and all offal had been destroyed. When killed, eleven of the eighteen had the disease and seven showed no signs of it. Since those cattle came back from the Stockyards, they had gained in flesh and were eating ravenously up to the time they were shot. The disease is not deadly as only 3 per cent die from the effect of it.

In view of this fact and the further fact that the disease could not have spread if the cattle had been isolated, it seems to us that their killing was unjustifiable and inexcusable. While Mr. Newman may have been under the impression that he was doing his duty, there is a possibility that he was playing to the grandstands. It may be that it is for the best, but it does not seem so to us. It rather seems to us that an honest, hardworking old farmer has been forced to lose about $400, which he may never get back. The federal government pays one half and if it gets the other, it will have to be appropriated by the next legislature. Our people feel outraged about this matter and when given an opportunity at the polls next year, will not be slow about expressing themselves.

Listen, Daughter

Listen, Daughter. Your mother tells me that the honey boy who has been festooning the landscape hereabouts for the past month has retreated to a position previously selected. In other words, he has gone and got another baby. Well, don't cry. There's no reason, and besides, it washes off the powder. Honey spent about four bits a week on you. Here's a dollar a week to take its place. Every time he called, he cleaned out the refrigerator. Your mother will see that your brothers do this in the future. He kept you up late nights. Your baby sister is teething and she has kept me up late, but I'll resign in your favor so it won't seem strange for you to go to bed early. He took possession of the most comfortable rocker in the living room. When you look at that rocker in the future, it will not bring a pang to see it empty, for it will be full of little old George B. Father. Your ma and I stayed by you through teething, colic, measles, croup, and whooping cough and we're going to see you through this if we have to take turns at spanking you. Take your eyes off the moon, daughter, and look at the dust around you.

Educational Column

The entertainment given Saturday evening at Shades was well attended and a neat sum was raised for the school.

Hebron School has just begun the daily warm lunch which has proven so popular in several large cities and for the present, soup of various kinds will be served at the noon hour. Should this plan prove popular (and we believe it will), many rural schools will probably give it a trial the coming winter.

Miss Marie Griffin was in Louisville Saturday.

S. G. Thornberry was here Monday and reports "all's well" at Beech Grove.

The following teachers attended the teachers' meeting at Mt. Washington Saturday: Chas. Daniels, Chas. Hardesty, Ruth Harris, Ollie Welch, Toyne Harris, Dora Harris, Jennie Carpenter, Edna Starks, Chas. Bridwell, Nettie Starks, Ora L. Roby and several prominent ladies of the town.

List of schools just visited:

Hebron, Miss Sara Williams, teacher. Here we find our largest rural school, but as many have finished the common schools, more than 30 are now enrolled in some high school in or out of the county, 43 enrolled here, 33 present, good cistern and pump, new stove, calcimined walls, shades, organ, pictures, a teacher teaching her 3rd term, "hot soup" at noon every day, but a house most too small for a large school.

Beech Grove, Miss Stella Troutwine, teacher. Here we find another large rural school but a rather small attendance on this particular day as considerable excitement was on at this time over the foot and mouth disease which had just broken out on the adjoining farm. 58 is the enrollment, 32 present, good water, new stove, new shades, splendid location and the largest and decidedly the best new school house in the county.

Mt. Elmira,, Miss Marjorie Harris, teacher. Now we find a young teacher filled with enthusiasm and an excellent little school, 31 enrolled, 21 present, rather an old school building, but in good condition, clean, neat and seemingly plenty of interest among the students, teacher, trustee and patrons.

Middleton-Curtsinger

Miss Josephine Middleton, aged 18 and Mr. Richard Curtsinger were married by Judge Funk. Both are popular young people and the Pioneer News wishes them a long and happy married life.

Surprise Party

For Miss Maymee Stephens, Delightful affair.

One of the most delightful entertainments of this season was the "surprise Party" gotten up by the young friends of Miss Maymee Stephens last Wednesday and tendered that charming and popular young lady in celebration of her 18th birthday. Assembling at the residence of one of Shepherdsville's prominent citizens, the young people repaired in a body to the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and Miss Maymee, where they received a most cordial and hearty welcome from their host and hostess whose warm greeting, with the assistance of Miss Noncye (sic) Jeffries, whose tact and charm of manner soon made every one feel at home. Miss Mary Collins was called on to act as mistress of ceremonies and how ably she performed that duty was soon evidenced by the smiles, laughter, joy, wit and humor that prevailed throughout the house. The evening was spent in enjoyment of games, music and conversation sparking with merriment and pleasure. Mrs. Stephens was equal to the occasion and towards the latter part of the evening did a little surprising herself by having served most delightful refreshments, consisting of fruit, ices and cake. Each ice brick was ornamented with the figure 18 in honor of Miss Maymee's anniversary.

Miss Maymee was the recipient of many beautiful and handsome presents, attesting her richly deserved popularity and large numbers of devoted friends, all of which were fully appreciated and high prized by the happy recipient. The following were present: Misses Edith Hancock, Mary Palmer Combs, Mary Collins, Belinda Crenshaw, Bertha Trunnell, Lillian Thompson, Ada Younger, Grace Griffin, Clara Linn Funk, Mary Frazier, Willie Mae Ridgway, Lorena Robinson, Mary Hall, Lillian Pittman, Blanche Jeffries, Lula Cook, Sallie Pope, Laura Daniel, Mary Jane Buckman, Blanche Howlett, Neva Magruder, Nancye Jeffries and Maymee Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Duncan, Messrs John L. Sneed, E. E. McCormick, James Hardaway and James Lee Williams, Guy Hecker, Woodford Troutman, Tot C. Carroll, Will and Irvin Funk.

Statement of Dr. David H. Smith.

Shepherdsville, Nov. 18, 1914.

Hon J. W. Barrall, Pioneer News. Dear sir, In reply to your request for definite news in regard to the Foot and Mouth situation will say that the condition of my eyes is such that I am prevented from attending our delightful picture shows, hence I am avoiding the Lime light as much as possible.

I have been ordered to work by Judge Funk to inspect all cattle brought into this county within the last sixty days according to Rules of Live Stock Sanitary Board and when through to file a report with the county Court. Until such time I will have nothing to give out officially.

However, in my private affairs always open for public inspection, I will furnish the following for the edification of your readers.

Day Book Entry, Nov. 14,
Expenses - One Badge of Office - 50 cents. One rubber coat to attend killing - $3.50, to horse hire - $1.00, To order not to dehorn cattle ?? - Total $10.00 - Due from Bullitt County $4.00 - Loss $6.00

Thus, it will seem that I am a heavier loser, in proportion in the capital invested, than any one connected with the cattle business and consequently am doing all in my power to clear up the situation and raise the quarantine. I wish to thank all our cattlemen for their hearty cooperation and promptness in reporting their cattle and County Judge Funk and County Attorney Bradbury for their able assistance in this, one of the most delicate and trying as well as responsible positions any of us were ever placed in. David Smith, Live Stock Inspector, Bullitt Co.

The box supper given by Miss Ann Mae Troutwine Saturday evening at Culver Springs was quite a success and more than $20.00 was raised for the school.

Statistics show that 12 per cent of the adults in Kentucky can neither read nor write and the illiteracy commission is trying very hard to reduce this number, but parents and guardians, how about the next generation? Won't their condition be almost as bad if they are kept out of school? How many days has your child been out of school this year? Ask your teacher, you will be surprised when you see her daily record book, and see how your child has been robbed, not of money, but something much more valuable.

At least two great American magazines have undertaken and have almost proven that the Public School system in American is a failure and every rural superintendent knows that the inefficiency is due entirely to a lack of attendance and that for every $100 the state pays for public education, more than another $100 is paid for the ones not attending. There is only one solution, a strong compulsory school law in 1916.

List of schools, just inspected:

Sunny Side, Edward Barrall, teacher. Here we find 36 enrolled and 21 present on a very bad day, 9 enrolled in the moonlight school, the first one started in Bullitt County, good water, healthy location, good seats, a good school, nice organ, shades, bell, good house and nicely painted on the inside by the teacher.

Chappell Ridge, Mattie May Funk, teacher. Here we find a district of 44 with 25 enrolled, a fairly good house, well painted and good seats, shady grounds, good monthly attendance and a young teacher who seems to be doing her best, but badly in need of water.

Mt. Olivet, Prof. Chas. Hardesty, teacher. Here we find 42 in the census and 35 enrolled, a large house in fair condition, but neat and clean, good stove, good location, plenty of seats, but no water, a number of bright pupils, several in the eighth grade and a well informed instructor.

 Masonic Temple Entertainment

The second entertainment. The Concordia Concert Co. given at the Masonic Temple last week fulfilled every recommendation made concerning it was a decided hit.

The musical program rendered by the three young ladies was high class and met with the enthusiastic approval of those present. Each of these three young ladies is an artist in her line and Miss Wagner, the leader and elocutionist, gave several selections that were humorous and very much enjoyed.

The comic pictures shown during the intermissions kept all the youngsters laughing and even smiles could be seen on the faces of the older ones as they watched the funny antics of the picture artists.

The next show of the series will be given by Hon. G. W. Boucher with several specialties on Jan. 5, 1915. A fuller description of his show will appear in another edition of this paper.

"Uncle" Jack Lands Big Fish

Mr. John L. Sneed, for years one of our most prominent men, politically, commercially and in church affairs, has landed a fat job in the Collector's office in Louisville, and is one of the happiest men in the County. He will make his home here, and go in and out on the "Bardsey" and will, we are glad to say, be as much a citizens of our town and county as ever. His friends are tickled to death over his good luck, and hope he may hold on for life. Mr. Sneed has been a wheel horse in the Democratic party, and while he was one of the hardest fighters in Kentucky, yet when nominations were made, he was for the nominee all the time. He is one of our best citizens and a high class gentleman as well and his good fortune is a source of gratification to all his friends, and shows to a dead moral certainty that Ben Johnson never forgets his friends and promises.

While Mr. Sneed is filling his position in Louisville, Daniel O. Gober, an experienced and affable insurance man, will have charge of the insurance business and will be in the office occupied by Mr. Sneed every day to take care of the public.

Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Troutman entertained at dinner last Wednesday: Misses Lahue, Blanch Howlett, Mary Palmer Combs, Mary Frazier and Lillian Pittman, Messrs Guy Hecker, Myron Combs and T. C. Carroll. All report a good time.

Reception a Grand Success

This reception was held at the home of Mr. R. L. Troutman and was the first of a series of entertainments to be given by the various ladies of the Baptist Church W.M.U. There was quite a number present. Some good readings and discussions and last, but not least, an excellent lunch was served.

Dobbin as Cannon Food

Within a few months, thousands and thousands of American horses, many of them family pets, will be galloping into the shrapnel bayonets of German soldiers, tugging and straining at the traces as they drag heavy artillery over the half-frozen roads or lying wounded, helpless and dying on some French, Belgian or German battle field. For despite the peace talks, despite the humane sentiment of our people and despite everything, trainload after trainload of American horses are leaving Chicago every day for Canada, to be shipped to England. Other trains leave St. Louis, Kansas City, and Louisville daily for New Orleans, whence the horses are shipped to France. These horses are being bought now, today, in the rural districts of the middle west, as well as from the ranges further west. Many a family pet will be bullet shattered and will die a lingering death in the cold of the coming winter, for there are no Red Cross societies to care for wounded horses.

All rural teachers are requested to bring all remaining school reports in as soon as possible after the close of school. Also bring annual report and report book property signed to the superintendent's office either on Monday or Saturday, as we yet have the graded school to visit, please drop a card or line this office before you leave home.

The Normal Department of the Shepherdsville High School will start Jan. 1st, 1915. Write J. H. Sanders for particulars as the largest class ever seen here will probably enroll then.

The State Department of Education has just sent us a complete state school directory for every teacher in Bullitt County. Ask for yours when you call at the court house.

List of schools visited:

Sugar Valley, Miss Ollie Welch, teacher. Here we find 32 enrolled, 26 present, a good roomy house, well painted, window guards, shades, good water, new blackboards, a very fine daily average and a teacher teaching her second term with a good chance for re-election.

Edgewood, Wallace Smith, teacher. Here we see 76 in a district, with 50 enrolled, good house in excellent condition, nicely painted, good stove, a new well and thru the efforts of the teacher, the nicest and cleanest grounds we have yet found.

Whitfield, Miss Nellie Polk, teacher. Here we find 44 enrolled out of 52 in the district, a bad house, no water, but some splendid students, a good school neighborhood and the only teacher I have teaching pupils from three different counties.

Senator elect J. C. W. Beckham of Frankfort.

There is a large article of political nature and photos of him, his wife and his two children.

I am going to highlight only - mostly personal facts.

Senator elect, J. C. W. Beckham, of Frankfort, the first senator to be elected by the people for a regular term from Kentucky.

His wife was the former Miss Jean Fuqua, of Owensboro. His daughter, Miss Eleanor is thirteen and his son, Creppa Jr is aged nine.

Beckham was born August 5, 1869, the son of William N. and Julia Wickliffe Beckham. He come from a family that has been prominent in affairs of the South. His mother was the youngest daughter of Governor Charles A. Wickliffe, who also held the portfolio of postmaster general in the cabinet of President Tyler. Her brother, Robert Wickliffe, was a governor of the state of Louisiana. She was, therefore, the daughter, the sister, and the mother of men who held the first office within the gift of the people of their states.

His father, a lawyer and farmer, died when the subject was but a mere boy. Owing to this, he got no further than his sophomore year at old Central University when called home to manage the farm. He continued his studies, however, with the result that at nineteen, he was made principal of the high school in his home town.

He was admitted to the bar in 1893.

The Nelson County man was returned to the lower house in 1898.

Beckham filled out the unexpired term of Gov. Goebel.

Three weeks after the election, at the age of thirty-one years, the young governor was united in marriage to Miss Jean Fuqua of Owensboro. They occupied the state executive mansion for the seven years following, he being re-elected in 1903 for a full term of four years.

One of the most notable features of the Beckham administration of affairs in Kentucky was the enforcement of the Sunday laws and the promotion of temperance and regulation of the liquor traffic. Until he had a opportunity to appoint a mayor of Louisville, in 1907, saloons ran wide open on the Sabbath. With the appointment of Robert Worth Bingham as mayor, they closed and have so continued ever since.

Dr. Smith and Uncle Gib, going to Jacob's dance

I went up to Dr. Smith's There business to pursue, We went out doctoring horses, As we usually do.

We had a call at Bedford

Crenshaw's, All cider being free, Just as we drank one bottle, There was another filled for me.

We only doctored one horse, In place of four.

We got so drunk at Bedford

Crenshaw's, We couldn't see how to doctor anymore.

We met with Jim McGlasson, All on the same day.

He told us that night Where Bert Deacon was to play.

After long and hard persuasion, At length, we did agree.

To meet him that night Where Bert Deacon was to be.

With the harness on my back, I went up to the barn.

????? old bay horse,
Not thinking it any harm.
Dr. slipped a quart in the buggy
As we drove away so still.
And when we come to
ourselves,
We were at Jacob's, at a dance
Just this side of Martin's Hill.
Noah Jackson and Ed Peacock
Followed us
As I have heard them say,
They must to have had a plot.
Or they never would have found the way.
Four ladies hopped out on the floor to dance,
Noah Jackson, Peacock, Dr.
Smith, McGlasson,
Rising up in their advance.
Bert Deacon being willing
His arm being strong
He gave the ground at Jacobs
For four hours long.
I says, come all young people
Don't you think you have danced enough
Let's spend about an hour in
Raise come cash for Bert.
We will go back to Shepherdsville
We will whistle and we will sing
And Dr. Smith says "If the Lord will just forgive him,
He will never be a Jacob's at a dance again.
Come all you old news carriers,
Carry the news about.
I don't want any of your lies on us,
For we are bad enough without.
You will run around and tell tales
And you raise an awful fuss

When you are guilty of the same crime
And maybe a little worse

I know Doc was a hot Beckham man, but I did not know he was so foolish about prohibition as to jump in a creek full of ice.
After Nick Miller had fished him out, drained the water out

gasoline, Doc opened his eyes and said, "Nick, how can I ever repay you?" "Well", said Nick,
"I have a calf that was old enough to sell when they put the quarantine on. Now he is so big he takes all the milk and five or six of my babies are bout to starve. You might get me a permit to sell this veal." I don't know what Doc did about it, but when he pulled in that night, he was a singing:

Some sects baptize with a tablespoon full,

The drunkards emerse (sic)
thrice

But I got H-l pelted out o'me with great big chunks of ice.

I retched out my hand as I floated down and I grabbed a wild grape vine.

If it hadn't been for that, I'd be with the angels,

A'singing "Auld Lang Sine
(sic)"

I could head old Nick a'singing
and this is what's he say:

Doc, you don't know where you're going, but you're on your way.

So I sent a fervent prayer up and I sent it loud and keen

It was, Newsman: O John double W, Can't you raise this quarantine.

Educational Column

Prof. J. H. Sanders has been sick for several days, but was able to direct the opening of the school here, which began its second term Monday.

Prof. S. E. Hancock, a well and popularly known educator of this State, spent the holidays in this city with his family.

Miss Agnes Lee Roby was very quietly married June 2, 1914, to Mr. Emmitt Rainey, of Lebanon Junction, and the fact has just been made known here since the holidays and also since Miss Roby closed her school at Hays. The bride is regarded as one of Bullitt's best teachers, having taken ????teachers examination at Frankfort, and making a splendid fine grade, while the groom is well known at Lebanon Junction where he holds a responsible position with the railroad Company.

Miss Mary Hill spent the holidays at Jeffersonville, the guest of her friend and co-worker, Miss Lorena Robinson.

Recent rumors at this office are to the effect that the good Saint Nick has probably ordered several large presents for our lady teachers, and before many moons, it now seems evident that we are to lose several excellent young teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. James Turner have been spending the holidays here, the guests of the latter's parents, Prof. And Mrs. S. E. Hancock.

Lena Ice, Nettie Starks, Howard Roby, Myrtle Shepherd, Gladys Welch, Price Howlett, Henrietta Baily and several others began school here Monday.

All teachers who have finished their schools must, under the law, send in all reports at once, as the salaries for attendance, etc. is now ready on Mondays and Saturdays. Be sure to write or phone us if you come any other day.

List of schools just visited.

Bardstown Junction Graded School, Jennie Carpenter and Blanche Troutwine, teachers. Here we find 85 in the census, 64 enrolled, a good library, organ, shades, house well painted and in good repair, splendid maps, plenty of seats, well lighted, heated ?, and some of the best students to be found in the County.

Belmont Graded School, J. C. Rouse and Bertha Engle, teachers. Here we find 56 enrolled with 50 present, a new house, modern in every respect, good play grounds, piano, clock, map, library and equipped with steel single automatic desks and chairs. The first of the kind used in this County.

Card of Thanks

I want to thank my kind friends and neighbors who were so kind to me in the sickness and death of my wife. And many thanks to Redman for the wreath of flowers. Robert Mattingly.

Tragic Death

Youth's tragic death on the Sabbath. Accidental Shot through heart carries Wm. Schoemaker into Eternity. A careless youth's fate.

Not a thought of impending danger, without a semblance of a warning and death instantaneous coming in an awful form, such was the fate that befell William Schoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Schoemaker, aged 17 years, last Sunday morning on his father's farm, near Belmont, six miles south of this city.

Young Schoemaker, with gun in hand, accompanied by a younger brother than he, went out on the farm to shoot a rabbit. After scaring up one of the fleet footed animals and running it for some distance, it ran into a hole of a log. Young Schoemaker, laying his gun upon the ground, ???? to scare the rabbit out of his secluded den, and when the little animal started running, he reached down to pick up the gun, it lying with muzzle pointed directly towards him, and in so doing, it in some manner accidently discharged, the entire contents of one barrel going squarely through his heart, death resulting instantaneously.

Coroner Cleve Masden, of this city, was summoned to the scene of the tragedy, and soon after his arrival empaneled the following jury: O. H. Masden, W. R. Armstrong, V. O. Gaban, William Wineholder, E. L. Boyd, and Preston Beauchamp. The jury, after hearing all the evidence, the part of which was given by his younger brother, he being the material source of the information, as he was the only eye witness to the sad affair, rendered a verdict in accordance to the manner of his death as described above.

On Monday afternoon, the unfortunate young man's funeral occurred at the home of his father, after which the remains were conveyed to the Belmont Cemetery where burial took place with a good sized crowd of sympathizing relatives and friends in attendance.

Death Comes to Two Good Citizens

Mrs Lida Lee

Mrs. Lida Blankenship Lee, wife of Herbert W. Lee, died at her home near Louisville, December 27th, 1914, after a lingering illness of many years. She was the daughter of J. J. Blankenship, for many years a merchant at Bardstown Junction, and the greater part of her unmarried life was spent there.

She was married to Herbert W. Lee, June 3rd, 1902, in the then Episcopal Church of Huber, Kentucky, the Rev. J. C. Rawlings, pastor of the Shepherdsville M. E. Church, performing the ceremony. Soon after her marriage, she became a victim of that ??? foe of ???, tuberculosis, and for the past eight or more years, her death has been considered but a matter of time. Before her marriage, she became a member of the Methodist Church at Bardstown Junction, and kept the faith until death ended her sufferings. On Tuesday, December 29th, her remains were brought to the Methodist Church in Shepherdsville, where service were conducted by Rev. Thompson, who was her pastor at Bardstown Junction, when she became a member of the church. He was assisted by the Rev. Mitchell of this place, and Rev. B. Alfred Owen, of San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Thompson spoke feelingly of the beautiful life of the deceased, and the love and fidelity which she displayed throughout her Christian life. Mr. Mitchell read the scriptures and Mr. Owen offered one of the most beautiful and touching prayers ever heard here. The casket was covered with beautiful floral designs and score of friends of the deceased gathers to mourn her sad departure.

After the services, which were very beautiful and touching, the body was conveyed to Hebron, and laid to rest in the beautiful little cemetery at that place, to await the coming day when those who sleep in Jesus shall be called to newness of life.

Throughout the long and painful illness of Mrs. Lee, she was tenderly and lovingly cared for by the members of her household. Her husband did all that love could suggest or human could do to alleviate her sufferings. Throughout her years of pain and sorrow, he was as faithful and loyal as man could be.

The life of Mrs. Lee was beautiful and inspiring. She kept the faith and fought the fight and her soul enjoys the fruits of a splendid victory. We extend our deepest sympathy to the grief-stricken husband and the aged father, and faithful aunt.

May the great Creator, who rules the land and seas, and marks the sparrow's fall, give them comfort and consolation.

Mr. Henry Davis

Mr. Henry Davis, one of the best and best known men in Bullitt County, died at his home near Bardstown Junction, last Tuesday, after a brief illness of heart trouble. He was about 62 years of age. He was a son of the late C. C. Davis, who died about ten years ago.

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

On Thursday, December 31st, his remains were laid to rest in the Cedar Grove Cemetery, after services in the church conducted by Rev. Hill, pastor of the Baptist Church at this place. Mr. Davis is survived by his wife, two sons, and three daughters, four brothers, and five sisters. He was a law-abiding, unassuming, industrious, home loving man, who preferred the quiet ways of life. He was a splendid neighbor, true friend, loyal and loving husband, affectionate and indulgent father and good citizen. His life was an open book, spent here in the county of his birth. He was a devoted and loyal member of the Baptist Church of this place, and died trusting in the promises of his Savior. We extend to the bereaved ones our sympathy in this dark hour; their loss is great, but God will help them bear it. And after all, this life is brief and fleeting, and 'twill not be long until those who mourn the departure of our good friend shall be summoned away from the care and pleasures of earth to the eternal habitation of those who have gone before.

House Catches Fire

The residence of Mr. Ham Croan caught fire last Saturday morning. The rear part of the house and most of the roof was destroyed.

Social

One of the most pleasant events of the season was the social given by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Troutman at their home one night last week. More than forty of their friends and relatives were present and fun and laughter reigned supreme on this enjoyable occasion.

All the usual holiday games were indulged in and even the older ones present so much enjoyed themselves that it seemed as if they had once more returned to their childhood days. Refreshments were served and it was almost midnight before the happy guests bid farewell to their hospitable and entertaining host and hostess.

The Chow Chow Chap's Chaplets

Will you come into my parlor?

Said the Old Maid to the Batch.

But the Old boy scented danger

And forthwith left the patch.

James Ice shipped a ton of talcum powder to Lebanon Junction to Uncle Charlie Atcher. Charlie is courting now to beat the band, and another big order is looked for soon.

"Uncle" Ben Pope has been smiling at a certain young lady recently, and a red hot courtship is not an impossibility.

While we are freezing and sneezing and wheezing up here in mud, ice, snow, rain and cold winds, Judge Morrow and Uncle Neil Trunnell, are basking in the warm sunshine down in Dixie.

Charlie Hoagland, one of the best fellows in creation, has breezed in from Texas, for a short stay with relatives and friends. He has developed a fondness for being around post offices. Not that he ever held the position of postmaster, or wants to hold it, for he does not, but somehow or the other, he begins to smile when he gets in reach of the post office at this place.

Speaking of Roy Maraman, reminds us of Hugo Rouse – that is to say James Hardaway – Millard Troutman made it hot for Tot – what we intended to say was that Leyton Ashby, was very fond - Judge goes to Bardstown, but his heart – well, we cannot tell it, so we shall stop. Good night.

Millard and Walter have gone back to school at State. We hated to seem them go, but it had to be did. Their Pa's made them go, and as their Pa's pay the bills, they had to pull out. They had some time while here, wining and dining and courting the girls. Tot says he's glad they are gone.

Short poem - In Loving Memory of Amy Mattingly by husband and children.

The Sage of Bullitt

The Jacobs Dance. Dad Jacobs has just called us over the grapevine and informed us that the latest infusion from the trenchant pen of the "Sage" of Bullitt, has been copied in the North Pole Refrigerator, a newsy sheet which was first edited by Dr. Cook; the eminent pole discoverer, and which has since been chiefly concerned in promulgating the truth. Dad Jacobs, by the same wire, sent us considerable stuff concerning the famous dance which Uncle Gib and Doc, attended at his home. We Quote:

Doc Smith and Gibble Griffin,
two bold, night-riding bloods;

To see some fancy dancing,
came out into the woods.

They hunted out my shanty, and
in their charming style;

Made friends of all the ladies,
by the sweetness of their smile.

They had been to Bluford
Crenshaw's to doctor on a mule;

Their blood was thin as water,
and the night was very cool.

So they took two quarts of cider? Cider made by J. P. Dant;

The kind which makes you think you can, When, in truth,
you can't.

And they drank that old corn
cider, with enthusiastic haste;

For fear, as Uncle Gilbert said,
The stuff might go to waste.

They emptied those two quart bottles, while dancing jigs and reels;

And it put a lot of ginger in Uncle Gilbert's heels.

He danced the double shuffle
with agility and grace;

And challenged fiddler Deacon
to run a mile foot race.

He kicked the eight foot ceiling
like a youth of twenty-eight;

But could not dance the Tango
for his feet were out of date.

When he struck the hesitation,
he did not hesitate;

He tried the good old bunnybug,
But his feet were out of date.

He was long on smiles and stories, He'd a world of winning mirth;

But he could not wig the wiggle,
He'd stayed too long on earth.

He ate a dozen pickles, and
swamped the cake and wine;

He drank a quart of coffee, and pronounced it very fine.

But when they chose their partners for the hesitation
grouch;

That wine took Uncle Gilbert,
and laid him on a couch.

At last Doc got him loaded into their limousine;

The wind was rising slowly, and the midnight air was keen.

But they struck the Old Lick turnpike, and scattered mire and mud;

For Old Jack Frost was coming,
And the booze was in their blood.

When they passed out by the graveyard, and saw a bunch of hau'ts;

Gilbert asked if they were going to the Daddy Jacobs dance.

As last Doc got him home in bed, and left him wrapped in slumber;

He had taken Crenshaw's cider,
but it turned and got his number.

Signed, Dad Jacobs

School Superintendent's Lovely Christmas Gift

Prof. Orville J. Stivers, School Superintendent of Jefferson County, secured a valuable and lovely Christmas gift on Christmas eve, when Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Skiles, of Buechel, presented to him their pretty daughter, Miss Dorothy Skiles. The happy couple were married last Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock and left immediately for a bridal trip to Tennessee.

The bride is one of the county's most popular and talented young ladies, and Prof. Stivers is fortunate in winning such a treasure. The Jeffersonian joins their host of friends in extending congratulations and best wishes. Jeffersonian

How we get the News

Day before yesterday a perfectly nice lady called us up and with tears in her voice, reproved us for not mentioning the fact that she had a friend visiting her last week. We told her that she had not let us know anything about it and that, therefore, we did not know she had a visitor. Then she said, "Well, you should have know. I thought you were running a newspaper." Wouldn't that rattle your slats? Some people think that an editor ought to be a cross between Argus and Anna Eva Fay. They seem to think that our five senses are argued (sic) by a sixth that lets us know everything that happens, even if we see, hear, feel, taste or smell it not. Dear lady, editors are only human or at least, almost human. If you have a friend visiting you, if you are going away, or have returned from a visit out of town, if Johnie falls and breaks his arm, if your husband chops his toe instead of a stick of wood, or anything happens that makes you glad, or sad, happy or mad, call us up. Tell us about it. That's the way to get it in the paper.

Educational Jottings

The Common School diploma examination will be held at the court house Friday and Saturday, January 29th and 30th, 1915 and the following questions on National and State Government should be studied by all who expect to take the examination.

The Number of County School Children.

We are in receipt of the total number of boys and girls who are between the ages of 6 and 20 years, the time specified by the law in Bullitt County.

The county has 3,956 between the ages and 1,782, or 60 per cent of them that attend school, according to a recent census bulletin. The date contained in the report relates to the year of 1910, and has only recently been made public. The distribution, by age groups and the number attending school is as follows:

Age	Total	Attendance
6-9	905	507
10-14	1032	847
15-17	527	268
18-20	466	90

These figures, although are for four years ago, yet show a good attendance. It is only fair to presume the number of scholars eligible and those attending have ??? increased.

The schools of the county have had excellent teachers for quite a long time, and one present Superintendent is a most earnest and energetic worker.

Clermont

Clermont, Misses Cecil Funk and Ethel Jenkins, teachers. Now we find a rural school which has grown to a two room school necessitating the service of two teachers with 128 in the district, 95 enrolled, 2 acres of level playground and an excellent modern new schoolhouse, fairly well equipped, plenty of interest among the pupils, patrons, and teachers and probably more real "improvements" recently made than to any other rural school in the County.

Mt. Washington School, Mrs. Doris Harris ???, Miss Toyne Harris, Miss Corriene Coleman with Prof. J. H. Strickler, music ? teacher. Here we find one of the few schools in the State that have as many teachers and yet not an independent graded School, but the third and fourth teachers are paid wholly by local contributions. With 129 in the census, we find 112 enrolled, good teachers, and advanced pupils but a poor house, small play grounds, no water and not enough rooms, but a growing sentiment among the people that will surely show improvements soon and in a short time, we hope to see an excellent school in this splendid little town.

No Foot and Mouth Disease in County

Doubts as to whether disease ever existed in confines of the county.

Fair statement of facts.

The opinion is almost unanimous in this section that there was no foot and mouth disease in Bullitt County; that the so called federal experts did not know anything about the disease, and that Clem Manning's cattle should not have been killed.

The United States Agricultural Department in its "Report on

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

Cattle” submitted by the chief of the “Bureau of Animal Industry” gives the following as the symptoms of the Foot and Mouth disease: Symptoms: In three to six days after exposure of the animal to the infection, the disease makes its appearance. It is first indicated by the animal suffering from a severe chill, quickly followed by an invasion of fever, which may cause the temperature to rise as high as 106 F. As soon as the disease has become (line missing) ???ces pain, when attempting to eat, in fact, the appetite is so often seriously affected that all food is refused.”

Of course, many other symptoms are given, but they have nothing to do with the purposes of this article. The cattle killed on the farm of Clem Manning, (14 of them) were purchased at the Bourbon Stockyards, on the 28th day of September, and the disease did not develop until about the first week in November. A full month and more had passed since the cattle left the yards and six weeks had elapsed since they were exposed to the alleged disease in the Chicago yards. The men who know just what they are talking about say that only six days – three to six – are required to find unmistakable evidence of the disease and here we find a lot so called federal experts who find it after the lapse of six weeks.

Another thing which knocks their ipse dixits into a cocked ??? is the fact that within a short while after becoming infected with the disease, the cattle cannot eat and begin to lose flesh.

The cattle on the Manning farm had gained from 75 to 150 pounds to the animal, and when driven up to be slaughtered, were eating as peacefully and hungrily as any other well cattle. There were in the herd, 14 cattle which came from the Bourbon yards and 4 which were raised in the County. Three of the foreign cattle, on the 8th or 10th of November, showed a few small sores in their mouths such as is caused by briars and brittle weeks, etc.

The native cattle showed no sores or pimples in their mouths. Why were the Manning cattle killed?

In Hardin County, two or three herds were condemned to be killed as were the Manning cattle, but an investigation by a man who knew his business, established the fact that they did not have the disease and they were not killed.

It was Mr. Newman’s duty to know that these cattle had the disease before permitting them to be killed. He should have had them isolated and kept them until there was no doubt. Private property cannot be destroyed just because some alleged expert says so, lest it should not be. In our opinion, somebody has blundered, and we should like to know who that somebody is.

It may be that the fault of the National government, or the State government, or of both, but it lies at somebody’s door, and the people of Bullitt are going to hit the first man who gives them a show, if they think he had a hand in the uncalled for killing of Clem Manning’s cattle.

Reid Rared, Roared and Repented.

Employee of Newman’s lets his temple loose to the merry tune of $120.00. Was in a terrible wrath.

Last Monday afternoon, the passengers, male passengers, if you please, who rode in the Smoker on the Bardstown accommodation, were treated to a series of contradictory thrills which could not be equaled outside a mad house or wild west show. Riding in the aforesaid accommodation on the day and date aforesaid, was a young man by the name of Reed, or Reid, who is an animal doctoring Veterinarian, and whose temper arises much higher than it’s possessor can hope to climb.

Mr. Reed, or Reid, works for Mr. J. W. Newman, the affable and handsome cattle killing Commissioner of Agriculture,

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

who is now running for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky. On the aforesaid Monday evening, the train steamed out of Union Station in fine shape. All the passengers had seats, all were sober and happy and homebound. Not a cloud marred the beauty of the clear sky and the distant horizon showed no evidence of the coming storm.

Preliminary to what is to follow, it might be mentioned that Mr. Reed or Reid is an ardent supporter of Mr. Newman, in his laudable efforts to land the nomination for Governor.

Somewhere this side of Highland Park, some of the passengers in the said smoker asked a fellow passenger if he intended to vote for Newman and the reply which was in the negative, was fringed with Billingsgate and other hot stuff.

Then in the language of the song, he (Mr. Reed or Reid), arose. He turned loose upon the passenger who had been discussing Mr. Newman, a flood of high flown cuss words. With all the rare skill and ability of an aviator, he soared aloft. He alternated from the seat to the hard pedal.

All the while, cuss words were rolling out of his handsome young mouth as mad bees roll out of a hive. He reared high and pitched forward; he put over a high inshoot, and followed it up with a slow one which cut the outside corner of the plate, so to speak. He cussed like all the past and present professors of profanity, and out-cussed them all. Walking up and down the aisle of the car, he turned loose a regular Niagara Falls of self evolving, combustible scorchers that shook the train. He coined whole sentences and gilded them with artistic words of brimstone.

In the language of James Whitcomb Riley, he cussed and cussed and cussed and as the old "Bardsey" swept gallantly down the long line of steel rails, his ability to turn out new cuss words increased. Striking low do, he cussed right up the scale and after reaching high c, proceeded to descend with the gracefulness of a mocking bird as it soars aloft and gracefully descends while it floods the evening air with sweet melodies. Everything ends but eternity and Mr. Reed or Reid, was gradually closing his performance and did not know it. Somewhere this side of Brooks, Curran Troutwine and Jim Croan and several others, took the young man into custody and when the train reached this place, put him in jail. That evening, he pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking the peace, and was assessed one hundred dollars and trimmings, and on the following morning entrained for Nelson County, fully convinced that the high cost of cussing is keeping him broke. It must be said that he was absolutely devoid of fear, and further and farther that he never did at any time seem to be short of cuss words. He was duly sober, but had heard Newman abused so much that he was mad.

A Happy New Year to the patrons of the Pioneer News.

The Christmas season passed quietly with the usual family reunions and a few informal social function.

Miss Sara Williams made the hearts of her little pupils glad by having a Christmas tree and a candy pulling before the holidays.

Rev. Ehrman Thornberry spent the holidays with his father here.

Mrs. G. W. Sanders returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Patrick in Virginia.

Dr. Holsclaw and family, Mr. Kinchler, of Indiana, and Jessie Brooks were dinner guests of Mrs. T. J. Brooks last Saturday, the occasion being the birthday of Miss Teresa Brooks.

Mr. Tom Richardson, of Indiana, with his son-in-law, Floyd Kinchler, have returned to their homes, after a visit to Mrs. S. W. Brooks and other relatives here.

There will be services at Little Flock next Sunday.

Tom Grant, of Indianola, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Annie Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. Severance, Miss ???, Murray Severance, and John W. Holsclaw spent Sunday at Dr. J. R. Holsclaw's.

Miss Birdie Ball spent a few days last week with Mrs. O. P. Means.

Miss Katie Crumbacker has recovered from a sick spell.

Born to the wife of Mr. Lathan, a son, Wallace Lathan.

Mrs. H. L. Rogers spent a few days in New Albany, Indiana, and was the guest at a family reunion at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edmondson.

Miss Irene Brooks spent the holidays with her niece in the city.

John Weller Holsclaw spent a few days last week in the city.

E. K. Severance with his family, left this week for their future home near Hopkinsville, Kentucky, where Mr. Severance has a fine, large farm. Their going means a loss to our social life and a distinct loss to the church in which they labored as useful and honored members.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bishop are both quite ill.

Miss Birdie Ball is spending this week in the city with relatives.

Miss Mary Cynthia Holsclaw spent Tuesday with Miss Sue Shane.

Bennett Ball went in the city last Thursday and attended the regimental drill at the armory.

Jas. Pope was in Shepherdsville Monday.

This is catalogue season. How we revel in the seed annuals and when we get our package of seed from the department of Agriculture, why our cup will overflow.

Nations Labor Problem

Over a million and a half women work as farm hands in the United States. By Peter Radford, Lecturing National Farms Union.

Our government never faced so tremendous a problem as that now lying dormant at the doors of congress and the legislatures, and which, when aroused, will shake this nation from center to circumference, and make civilization hide its face in shame. That problem is – women in the field.

The last federal census reports show we now have 1,514,000 women working in the field, most of them south of the Mason and Dixon line. There were approximately a million negro slaves working in the fields when liberated by the emancipation proclamation. We have freed our slaves and our women have taken their places in bondage. We have broken the shackles off the negroes and welded them upon our daughters.

The Chain Gang of Civilization.

A million women in bondage in the southern fields form the chain-gang of civilization – the industrial tragedy of the age. There is no overseer quite so cruel as that of unrestrained greed, no whip that stings like the lash of suborned destiny, and no auctioneer's block so revolting as that of organized avarice.

The president of the United States was recently lauded by the press, and very properly so, for suggesting mediation between the engineers and railroad managers in adjusting their schedule of time and pay. The engineers threatened to strike if their wages were not increased from approximately ten to eleven dollars per day and service reduced from ten to eight hours and a similar re-adjustment of the overtime schedule. Our women are working in the field, many of them barefooted, for less than 50 cents per day, and their schedule is the rising sun and the evening star, and after the day's work is over, they milk the cows, slop the hogs and rock the baby to sleep. Is anyone mediating over their problems and to whom shall they threaten a strike?

Congress has listened approvingly to those who toll at the forge and behind the counter, and many of our statesmen have smiled at the threats and have fanned the flame of unrest among industrial laborers. But women are industrial warfare as they are the burden-bearers in the war between nations, and those who arbitrate and mediate the differences between capital and labor should not forget that when the expenses of any industry are unnecessarily increased, society foots the bill by drafting a new consignment of women from the home to the field.

No financial award can be made without someone footing the bill, and we commend to those who accept the responsibility of the distribution of industrial justice, the still small voice of the women in the field as she pleads for mercy, and we beg that they pinch no crumb from her crust of bread or put another patch upon her ragged garments.

We beg that they listen to the scream of horror from the eagle on every American dollar that is wrung from the brow of toiling women and hear the Goddess of Justice hiss at a verdict that increases the want of woman to satisfy the greed of man.

The women behind the counter and in the factory cry aloud for sympathy and the press thunders out in their defense and the pulpit pleads for mercy, but how about the woman in the field? Will not these powerful exponents of human rights turn their talent, energies and influence to her relief? Will the Goddess of Liberty enthroned at Washington hold the calloused hand and soothe the feverish brow of her sex who sows and reaps the nation's harvest or will she permit the male of the species to shove women – weak and weary – from the bread-line of industry to the back alleys of poverty.

The census enumerators tell us that of the 1,514,000 women who work in the fields as farm hands, 409,000 are sixteen years of age and under. What is the final destiny of a nation whose future mothers spend their girlhood days behind the plow, pitching hay and hauling manure, and what is to become of womanly culture and refinement that graces the home, charm society and enthuse man to leap to glory in noble achievements if our daughters are raised in the society of the ox and the companionship of the plow?

In that strata between the ages of sixteen and forty-five are 950,000 women working as farm hands and many of them are suckling babes tugging at their breasts, as drenched in perspiration, they wield the scythe.

The whole show was one continuous rip-roaring, heart-thrilling, side-splitting performance that the large crowd present had the pleasure of. The 8 colored characters all acquitted themselves in a most creditable way, and taking into consideration this was their initial performance, the whole affair was

Mrs. Sarah Burnett ? has returned from Cincinnati.

Mr. W. S. Bates and sister, Mrs. Jackson, spent a day last week with Mrs. C. F. Troutman.

Mrs. George Shaw, of Louisville, spent Monday with Mrs. S. W. Bates.

Mrs. C. H. Prather, of Louisville, visited her parents here last week.

Miss Mary Collins spent the week end with Mrs. E. C. Tyler.

Mrs. Mollie Pierce, of Louisville, spent Sunday with Miss Annie Pierce.

Our good friend, Charlie Hoagland, who has been visiting friends, relations and sweethearts in Bullitt and Jefferson for some time, left for Navisota, Texas, last Tuesday afternoon with the best wishes of his many friends. One of his girls went as far as Louisville with him, and several of the others wanted to go all the way. Charlie Hoagland is one of the best fellows on earth, and is forging ahead in the Lone Star State and it would not surprise us if one of our girls went out there with him in the near future.

Judge Masden, than whom no sparkinger fellow ever ran a livery stable, or courted a girl in Bardstown, is becoming a great checker player. Almost daily, he can be seen manipulating the contrary blocks or trading two men for one king. Then in a spirit of liberality, he will give away about three men just to get a good start. He is engaged in the almost hopeless task of beating Hardaway and Williams, and just as soon as success crowns his efforts, will tackle Tom Martin.

Billy Bybee and Johnie Durbin, two Louisville boys, who visit in these parts very often are to make an extended tour of the Eastern part of the state, visiting such towns as Lawrenceburg, Lexington and Frankfort. They will be gone two weeks or longer.

Educational Jottings

Prof. Chas. Daniel left Monday for Texas, where he will enter school under Prof. Thompson, who formerly taught here.

Miss Nora Beauchamp and Mrs. Edgar Walker, of Glendale, two former teachers of this county, were the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ora L. Roby.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maraman returned home Monday after a brief trip to Northern points and will be at home to their friends after Feb. 1st at their new cottage on North Main Street.

Mr. Howard Roby, who is attending school here is on the sick list, but well enough to resume his school duties Monday.

Prof. Chas. Hardesty, who is having considerable trouble with his throat, when to Louisville to consult a specialist Monday.

Miss Katie French, who has been teaching in this county for two years, has been selected teacher for a school near Stithton. Miss French taught both years at Victory and seemed to give good satisfaction and as far as we are now able to determine will be entitled to the prize next institute offered by Senator Bob Zimmerman, for the best moonlight school in Bullitt County, having enrolled over 40 adults, several that could neither read nor write.

Some 20 or 25 students are expected Friday, Jan. 29th, to take the common school diploma examination, but we insist their parents and teachers give their pupils careful training before attempting this examination. Don't sent them, "just for practice", for it frequently has the opposite effect and may be a permanent discouragement to your child.

Mrs. Mattie Glenn and Miss Mary Hall have been reappointed and sworn in as County examiners for the coming year. Both are ladies of the very highest type and will no doubt discharge their duties well.

Prof. H. H. Cherry, who is a candidate for the nomination for governor met the board of regents of the Western State Normal School in Louisville last week and tendered his resignation as president of said school. Prof. T. J. Choates, state rural inspector, made immediate application for the place, and State Supt. Hamlett may also ask for the position in a few days.

Sugar Valley School closed Jan. 22nd, with regular attendance of 25, enrollment 31. There were 11 pupils that received prizes for attending the term without missing a single day. They were as follows: Pachen Boston,

Helen Harris, Priscilla O'Bryan, Louise Stansbury, Mary Dent Harris, Mildred Stansbury, May Montgomery, Walter O'Bryan, Joseph Stout, Charles Guthrie Tyler and Clarence Graham. We think this is good for a rural school.

 "Butch" Graduates

In the above handsome picture, his numerous girls will have no trouble in recognizing Woodford Troutman, who has just graduated from Louisville High School with high honors.

After finishing at our local High School, Woodford attended L. T. S. for several years, and then went over to the Louisville High School where he has just finished. He is now ready for college, and next autumn will leave for some one of the larger institutions for a four years course.

"Butch" is a fine boy and splendid scholar and has done some fine work. He has been under the care of some fine musicians in the past few years, and can perform splendidly on the piano or organ. The Spectator, the High School paper, in it's write-up of the graduates, pays Woodford some high and deserved complement, referring to the fact that he is one of the best liked fellows in the class, and speaks of his standing with the girls.

We heartily congratulate "Butch" on his achievements and also congratulate his parents. He has not disappointed them in their parental hopes and expectations, but on the other hand, has given them just cause for feeling proud of their son. May he continue to fulfill their hopes and equal their expectations.

Mystery & Magic at Masonic Temple.

Friday night, Feb. 5th, Hal Merton, master of magic and ventriloquism will present one of the most laughable and unique entertainments ever presented in Shepherdsville. Upon a brilliantly lighted stage, he will show that is not only possible for an article to be in two places at the same time, but also nowhere at all. Eggs, billiard balls, flowers and other things appear at his command in the most unusual places. Many of the most puzzling tricks of the Hindoo magicians are duplicated for the first time. Come prepared to laugh at the witty sayings of "Blockhead Joe" in the funny act on ventriloquism. The features of this entertainment are too numerous to mention and all lovers of fun and mystery should come. Remember the place, Masonic Temple, Shepherdsville. Friday night, Feb. 5th. Admission 25 and 50 cents. Reserved seats now on sale at Bullitt County Bank.

A Letter

Bickwell, Ind., Jan. 16, 1915

After forty years absence, I enjoyed a visit to my old home town, Shepherdsville, Ky, and found a great change indeed, but still the county looked familiar, as I had last viewed it.

The house in which we used to dwell is still standing, looked as it used to years ago. It was sure a pleasure to view again the old land marks of long ago that were so familiar in my memory and to renew again the acquaintance of my "boyhood" friends gave me much pleasure indeed.

My nephew, Mr. Tom Brooks, spent Monday, Jan. 4th driving my son-in-law, Floyd Fincher, and my nephew, John Brooks and I sight seeing and we certainly had a pleasant day and saw county that I never expected to see again.

I have visited Kentucky several times since I moved to Indiana, but this is my first visit to Shepherdsville for forty years.

My son-in-law, Floyd Fincher, is well pleased with Kentucky and cannot compliment it and the hospitality of the people very highly. (?Edith) He speaks this much for his first visit to Kentucky and hopes to live to enjoy many more visits.

We sure had a delightful two weeks stay with relatives and friends, one that shall long be remembered by us.

While there, we visited my sister, Mrs. S. W. Brooks, and daughter, Miss Irene, my niece, Mrs. Warner Bell, and nephews, Thomas, John and Joseph Brooks and families and Mrs. Priest, of Okolona, and cousins, Eugene and Charles Richardson and families and while there, I visited my sister, Mrs. John Grant and family and thence to the city, where we enjoyed a few days sight seeing and also had a very pleasant visit with my wife's sister, Mrs. Margaret Sanders and cousins, Mrs. Lula Carroll and sister, Miss Katie Richardson and niece, Mrs. Mattie Ridgway and many other friends. So I will close hoping to

Cattle Shortage

January 1st, 1907, there were 51,000,000 cattle in the United States, with a valuation of more than $881,000,000 while in January 1914, there were only 38,000,000 cattle with a valuation of $1,116,000,000, which looks pretty bad for a seven year period. In 1914, the average price per head was more than twenty-nine dollars, as against seventeen dollars in 1908. And in that time, the population of the country has increased many millions, while the number of cattle had decreased sixteen millions. The wholesale killing of calves for veal purpose is largely responsible for this state of affairs, while the movement of the rural population to the cities has helped, and the high price of farm labor and the settling of emigrants and others on the public lands of the West may be thrown in as contributing causes. The plain fact is, we have too many consumers for our producers. About one third of our population is on the farm, while the other two thirds are in the towns and cities consuming the product of the one third.

If we can stop the slaughter of calves, build and use judiciously, more silos, keep our boys on the farm and induce thousands who have left there to go back, we can check the rapid decrease in cattle and actually increase the number.

No wonder cattle are high, and no wonder beef is high when there has such a rapid and alarming falling off in the number of cattle. A corresponding decrease for twenty-one years would almost wipe out our cattle.

Cattle Killed

Virulent Foot and Mouth Disease Discovered in Herds of Cattle Sold into This County.

Twenty-two cattle and five hogs were destroyed on the Wathen farm at Bardstown Junction Tuesday. Mr. Wathen bought 18 of these cattle without seeing them, from a dealer who represented them to be sound and as not having been in the Bourbon yards since November. Upon discovering their condition, he gave the authorities all the assistance possible towards destroying them as quickly as possible. Four cattle and five hogs belonging to Jake Lanyer were also destroyed, all having become infected in the short space of five days. Twenty-two head of cattle belonging to Lem Swearingen, which were driven out with the Wathen cattle were found to be infected Sunday by the County officers. These, with four hogs which have also developed the disease, will be destroyed as soon as the trench can be dug. This outbreak is in such a contagious form that it will take vigorous measures to check its spread. It now appears that a regular Foot and Mouth Incubating plant has been running overtime in the same neighborhood where horses were a short time ago being slaughtered for human food and also under the noses of the Government and State Inspectors, who have searched in vain to locate the trouble in the yards. The method employed by these unscrupulous dealers was to purchase cattle at the yards in the name of some butcher or packer representing that they were for immediate slaughter, drive them to some out of the way pen where inspection lurked and then resell them to farmers.

Dr. Johnson, assisted by A. B. Smith, Government Inspectors and Dr. E. S. Garr, Assistant State Veterinarian and County Inspector David Smith are hard at work in the county and Judge Funk is giving all needed assistance. There is no way to estimate to what extent this epidemic has spread and it will be necessary for all our people to co-operate heartily with the inspectors if we expect to come out clear in sixty days. Any attempt to "hide out" stuff will only add to prolonging the agony as the officers have a list of all cattle brought into this county in the last thirty days and they will be eventually found. "Why not now?"

St. Valentine

Valentines are missives of weal or woe. You will be happy on Valentine Day or any day after taking lunch with the Blue Grass Dairy Lunch Northside of Jefferson Street, 4 doors east of 4th Street, Louisville. You will be pleased with our reasoning (sic) and moderate prices.

Quarantine

Notice, Law Must Be Upheld.

Bullitt County was again placed under Federal Quarantine on the night of Feb. 15.

This is due to 40 head of cattle which were driven in Feb. 9th. Eighteen of these on the farm of Richard Wathen have probably had the Foot and Mouth Disease for a month. Evidently the 22 of Lem Swearingen have become infected by being driven out with the Wathen herd, but all the 40 show the disease plainly. How long the quarantine will last will depend upon how soon we are able to show that we are free of the disease. Judge Funk has appointed a special officer to guard the infected territory and issued orders that all dogs be put up or killed. No one need have any fear that their cattle will be killed unless they have genuine Foot and Mouth disease and any having knowledge of cattle coming into their neighborhood within the last month are requested to report to the County Live Stock Inspector at once. The authorities have a list of all these cattle and anyone attempting to conceal them will be prosecuted under the law.

Another Good Woman Gone

Death angel crept in the home of Wm. Rice, Feb. 4, 1915 and taken away his wife, Meck Rice. She was born Oct. 5, 1848, aged 66 years, 4 months. She leaves to mourn her loss, husband and three sons, John, Robert and Tom Rice and 15 grandchildren, 4 great grandchildren. She was buried at Cedar Grove Feb. 6th. Services were conducted by Rev. Mac McCormick. He sure does know how to sympathize with the unfortunate ones that has to give their friend, and she bore the name of a good woman wherever she went. She was a loving wife and a fond mother, a good neighbor. She was a Christian who loved her savior. Weep not, loved ones, but look up to your savior and say we will meet you wife and mother on that bright and golden shore. It is hard to give up the precious one of our home. When mother is gone, home is gone too. It matters not how often you go back to the old home place, it don't seem like home if mother is not there. She was sick eight days with pneumonia. We know not what moment we will be called away so let us number our days that we may ply our wisdom to them.

Ben Johnson

Savoyard in Louisville Post.

Washington DC Jan 3

I wish I had the industry to "cram" for a letter. Some months ago, I saw Ben Johnson, of Kentucky, and he told me a heap of things about the District of Columbia, a part of political and geographical American in which all our people have more or less interest, patriotically and pecuniarily. Mr. Johnson loaded me down with documents which I intended to read and try to digest. They are on my desk now unread, but I reckon I know enough of what they contain to write a reasonable intelligent paper about them so here goes.

This here town thinks it has exhausted eulogy when it says of a member or Senator, "He is a friend of the District." To be a friend of the District, it was necessary to fetch and carry for certain rich men the city of Washington, who composed as greedy a ring as ever cursed Cincinnati or other like towns. For years, the national capital has been run in the interest of these gentry. Perhaps in the entire Union there could not be found a town whose public service corporations had drank more water. Indeed, the statement is made that a certain street railroad corporation is capitalized at nearly a million dollars a mile. There never was before anywhere in our land such a saturation of high toned corruption as afflicted Washington DC the ten years before Ben Johnson got to be chairman of the Committee of the House of Representatives.

In the rich northwest section where dwell the rich tax dodgers from the States, the assessment of real property was ridiculously low. In the other and poorer sections, the assessment was oppressively high. For instance, a certain estate, containing some thirty acres, was assessed at a sum that would not pay half the cost of a fence that enclosed it, whereas in the northeast, where poor folk live, the assessment of real estate was pretty nearly the par value of the property.

Anacostia, a suburb, had holes in densely populated streets that would hide a salt barrel. A certain millionaire bought a woods in the northwest and a sycophantic district commission built street through it – all vacant lots – that Fifth Avenue would not have been ashamed of, as rank a piece of high toned graft as your mind ever contemplated. All the rights were for the rich. All the duties were imposed on the poor. Read the correspondence between the editor of the organ of the Washington Gas Light Company and Ben Johnson's predecessor as chairman of the District Committee.

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

Nobody will ever write such a letter as that to Ben Johnson. When he became a member of the District Committee, Johnson set about a study of district affairs. A very able lawyer, a thoroughly honest man, a business man and a man of affairs, Ben Johnson refused to be cajoled by the pundits in the pay of the grafters, and they soon discovered to the public that he could not be intimidated by them.

And then they began a warfare on him. The Board of Trade sought to rebuke him. They press heaped abuse on him. He was denounced in all sorts of ways, and for what? He saw that the town was run for a corrupt class and he determined to smite that class. He has done it pretty effectively.

The assessment of real estate, not yet as honest as it should be by a long shot, is much less dishonest than it was. Johnson got to looking into the "organic act" of 1878 and discovered that this town was to be governed by a commission of "resident", but that half the expenses was paid out of the national treasury, and he assailed that condition, and then the floodgates of wrath were opened. He paid small heed to the vilification of the local press and the denunciation of "business association." He went his way.

He went ahead. Twice or thrice, he has passed through the House, of which he is a member, a repeal of the "half-and-half" plan of the organic act. The Senate is the last ditch of privilege and so far that body has defeated him, but it will not be for long. Invisible government came out of its hole in this town the other day when the President sent to the Senate the nomination of Mr. Siddons for one of the local judgeships. Invisible government put its hands forth with result I as yet know not of. I think it will triumph, but injustice is ever a fool in the end. It will not succeed except for the moment.

Ben Johnson hates meanness. His soul takes on fire when it is presented to him that wealth shirks its duty and imposes it on poverty. It would be very difficult for me at this moment to name any other man in either House of Congress who would have not succumbed to the warfare that has been waged against Ben Johnson.

But Ben Johnson has the ear of the House and he will get the attention of the Senate, and even that body will harken to a plain provision of justice, which is that all property in the District of Columbia shall be assessed at its fair value for taxation.

I think Ben Johnson is a fixture in Congress and I am sure that the next generation of the District of Columbia will call his name blessed.

Educational Jottings

The girls basketball team here went to LaGrange Saturday and played a very exciting game in which our girls were victorious, the score being 21 to 9. Willie May Ridgway, Lucille Wooldridge, Mary Bell, Clara Lynn Funk and Kathleen Croan were our regular line-up, with Sara Jane Buckman, Nancy Trunnell and Ursa Funk as substitutes.

The girls were chaperoned by Miss Robinson and Prof. Sanders and in addition to being a crowd of splendid young ladies, have undoubtedly developed the past two seasons into one of the best teams in the State, being defeated only by the Louisville University team which they will again play March 5th.

Miss Cordia Wilson, of Campbellsville, a well known teacher of that place is visiting her friend and former school mate, Miss Willie May Ridgway.

The Edenside church team of Louisville came out Friday evening and played our high school boys a game of basketball and joyously went home Sunday with a score of 15 to 5 in their favor. East team has won a game from the other and the tie game will probably be played before the season closes.

Trustee L. Q. Owens, Elmer Ridgway, Chas. Kneisler, and H. A. Cundiff were here last week.

Miss Ollie Welch, of Pitts Point, a well known teacher of this county, was quietly married last Wednesday to Mr. Ben Hardy, a prosperous farmer living on the Bardstown pike near Mt. Washington.

Mrs. Dora Harris and a crowd of friends will give a high school play at Mt. Washington March 6th entitled "Anne of Old Salem" in which colonial days will be vividly depicted, such as Quaker meetings, witchcraft trials, etc. The public is urged to attend.

Price Howlett left recently for Bowling Green where he will enter school.

Miss Cecil Funk, principal of the school at Clermont, assisted by Miss Jenkins closed their school at that place Friday.

Every teacher and trustee in this county should begin now making their arrangements to attend to K. E. A. which will meet in April at our own front door, Louisville, Ky.

Miss Lydia E. Gardner, of Carlisle, Ky will deliver an address at the court house Tuesday March 2nd, at 2 o'clock to teachers and trustees. Every teacher and trustee in Bullitt County should attend.

Hasty Marriages

Bring Leisurely Repentance

Dr. U. G. Foote, at th Methodist Temple in Louisville Sunday night, Feb. 14, preached a sermon against the marriages made on the spur of the moment in Jeffersonville.

We know that the learned person was not shooting at us, for we while we have always been ready, willing and anxious to marry in haste, or Jeffersonville, or in any other place where the fateful ceremony could be performed, it never has taken place because of numerous timely, strenuous and effective female objections.

However, we know it must be awful to marry in haste, and almost as bad to wed in dear old Jeff, for the good parson said so. He says we are rotting at the heart. That we are flippant, irreverent and vulgar. Of course, he did not refer to the write (sic), but just shot at the whole of creation so to speak.

In these days of tangoes, cigarettes, short, tight limited and circumscribed costumes, motion picture shows and vulgar rag time songs, to say nothing about the low flung, vulgar literature which we find on all sides, our friend, Dr.

The Pioneer-News, 1913-1915, J. W. Barrall, Editor

Transcribed from Microfilm by Edith Blissett in the year 2002

Foote, need not feel surprised if he finds heart-rotteness.

Of course, there are hundreds of hasty weddings which should not occur, but the fault lied deeper down in the water. The fault lies in the home; in the rearing of children and the daily examples set by their parents.

Of course, in a way, we are becoming vulgar. In fact, we are vulgar. We go to theatres and listen to vulgar songs; we pay high prices to go see vulgarly clad women in immoral plays, we read vulgar books. All this is the gospel truth, and we maintain that people who do all such things are vulgar, or they would not do them. Criminals commit crimes; birds of a feather flock together; bank robbers rob banks, and people with vulgar minds and tastes, go to see that which is vulgar, and listen to vulgar songs and read vulgar literature.

Many happy marriages have been contracted in old Jeffersonville, hastily, and many, many unhappy ones have been made leisurely in Kentucky. It is not the wedding; for that is but an index to the characters and ideas of the contracting parties.

What causes men and women to marry without knowing each other? It is brought about by cheap plays and cheaper novels. Love at first sight is the invention of the writer of cheap novels. It comes from the bookstores and footlight and leaves a lasting impression on the young mind. We are too careless with the children. They go where they please, and when they please, read what they please and do as they please. Abuse of the marriage vow is not rotting our hearts, but rotten hearts cause us to abuse the sacred institution of marriage.

We need wholesome literature, better and cleaner music, and a return to the puritanism of our forefathers.

Elopements and sight-marriages do not cause all the evil complained of by Rev. Foote, but the other laxities and curses herein enumerated are directly responsible.

Quarantine

Notice - Law must be upheld.

Bullitt County was again placed under federal quarantine on the night of Feb. 15th.

This is due to 40 heard of cattle which were driven in Feb. 9. Eighteen of these on the farm of Richard Wathen have probably had the Foot and Mouth disease for a month. Evidently the 22 of Lem Swearingen have become infected on being driven out with the Wathen herd but all 40 show the disease plainly. How long the quarantine will last will depend on how soon we are able to show that we are free of the disease. Judge Funk has appointed a special officer to guard the infected territory and issued orders that all dogs be put up or killed. No one need have any fear that their cattle will be killed unless they have genuine Foot and Mouth disease and any have knowledge of cattle coming into their neighborhood within the last month are requested to report to the County Live Stock Inspector at once. The authorities have a list of all these cattle and anyone attempting to conceal them will be prosecuted under the law. Signed - David Smith, County Live Stock Inspector.

Finds Daughter Bride on a Business Trip Here

G. A. Hendry, of West Point, Kentucky came to Louisville yesterday on business and bumped into a bridal party. It was that of his daughter, Miss Pauline Lucile Hendry, 21 years old, and William Golden Hardy, 21, an undertaker of West Point. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charlie H. Prather, of the Virginia Avenue Methodist Church, at the residence in Parkland of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hendry, relatives of the bride. Immediately after the marriage, the young people telephoned the news to their parents, the former Miss Hendry not knowing her father was on his way to the city. G. A. Hendry is a clerk in the United States mail service.

For Rent

Farm of 125 acres on Blue Lick Pike near Brooks, Kentucky on reasonable terms. For particulars, apply to A. F. Brooks, Brooks, Ky.

Record Cattle Killing in North Bullitt

Seventeen cattle, 57 hogs and ??? sheep were slaughtered on the ??? occupied by ??? Friday, 22nd, being all infected with Foot and Mouth disease. One cow was bought on the farm from the Zender place on Feb. 8th. On Feb. 18th, the County Live Stock Inspector found all of the cattle and part of the hogs and sheep infected. He at once quarantined the premises and notified the Federal and State veterinarians who confirmed the diagnosis and took charge of the situation. These with the 26 in the Wathen herd and the 49 in the Swearingen herd make a total of 265 animals slaughtered in Bullitt County within a week. Animals exposed to these infected animals showed the disease so plainly in from four to eight days that there was no objection made by the owners to their being killed and the appraisement (sic) on all was quite reasonable. This is quite a contrast to our former so called outbreak where three cattle of Clemans Manning said to be infected with Foot and Mouth disease had been in direct contact with over fifty other cattle and in six weeks time had not been able to communicate the disease to a single one. This should confirm the belief expressed by the Pioneer-News that the Manning herd did not have the contagious Foot and Mouth Disease and it is the general opinion that had the present competent experts now in charge of the present epidemic had a look at them, they would never have been killed and the people of this county would have been saved from a loss estimated at $25,000 resulting from the needless quarantine. There have been no new cases discovered at this time but it will be necessary to make a farm to farm inspection of all exposed territory. Dr. David Smith is devoting all of his time to inspection work at a great personal sacrifice and it will be some days before the Federal or State authorities can spare men to assist in the inspection here. Every one is requested to keep their stock as close as possible as we are not yet out of danger and to report any suspicious cases at once that they may be investigated.

Welch-Hardy

Miss Ollie Welch and Mr. Ben Hardy were quietly married by Rev. Henry C. Davis, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Jeffersonville, Indiana, Feb. 18th.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Maggie Welch and was one of Bullitt County's most prominent and successful young teachers.

The groom is the son of Thos. Hardy, of Mt. Washington and is a prominent young farmer.

Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

Big Basket Ball Game

The most interesting game of basket ball ever played in Shepherdsville will be played at Fraternal Hall next Friday night, March 5. The girls team of the Shepherdsville High School will play the University of Louisville team. Our girls have lost only one game in two seasons and they were defeated by this team.

The University team claims the championship of Kentucky, and as our girls have a splendid team, this should prove to be a great game. Game called at 8:00 p.m. Admission 25 cents.

Falls to His Death

Mrs. Will Magruder and daughter, Miss Elizabeth and Mrs. Arp Harmon spent Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. Henry Jones.

Instead of 22 cattle and 4 hogs that were killed at Lem Swearingen's for the Foot and Mouth Disease last Thursday as the Pioneer News gave in last week's issue. There was everything in stock killed, except the horses off the farm. The amount of stock killed were 23 head of cattle and 19 head of hogs belonging to Lem Swearingen and the 2 only cows and the 5 only hogs belonging to Chas. Crenshaw. We may be wrong but it seems very hard to see all the valuable stock killed in such a manner and we sure regret to hear of so many great losses.

Mildredina Hair Remedy grows hair and we prove it by hundreds of testimonials.

It never fails to produce the desired results. It enlivens and invigorates the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, resulting in a continuous and increasing growth of hair. Letters of praise are continually coming in from nearly all parts of the country stating that Mildredina Hair Remedy has renewed the growth of hair in cases that were considered absolutely hopeless. A lady from Chicago writes: After a short trial, my hair stopped falling and I now have a lovely head of hair, very heavy and over one and half yards long.

Mildredina Hair Remedy stimulates the scalp, makes it healthy and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp invigorator known. It is a wholesome medicine for both the hair and the scalp. Even a small bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a dozen bottles of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

Now on sale at every drug store and toilet store in the land. 50 cents and $1.00.

Mildredina Hair Remedy is the only certain destroyer of the dandruff microbe which is the cause of 98 per cent of hair troubles. These pernicious, persistent and destructive little devils thrive on the ordinary hair tonics.
