

- Does BCPL plan to hire a construction manager to provide real-time estimating and design input?

This is a consideration the Board of Trustees and Administration are taking, but for now, we are looking at a construction manager/foreman with the construction firm hired. This is subject to change as the process continues. For our Central Library, we did use a Systems Analysis and this is a consideration for the Hillview Branch.